2. (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Appeal Board” means a War Pensions Appeal Board established under this Act:

“Board” means, as the context may require, a War Pensions Board or a War Pensions Appeal Board established under this Act: 5

“Child”, in relation to any member of the forces, means a child under the age of sixteen years; and includes a step-child, an adopted child, and an illegitimate child: 10

“Department” means the Social Security Department established under the Social Security Act 1938:

“Dependant”, in relation to any male member of the forces, means— 15

(a) The wife or widow of the member:

(b) Any child of the member:

(c) The father or mother of the member:

(d) Any other member of his family who, 20 in the opinion of the Board, might reasonably have expected to enjoy some actual pecuniary benefit if he had not suffered disablement or death;

and, in relation to a female member of the forces, means— 25

(a) Any child of the member actually dependent on her:

(b) Any other member of her family who, in the opinion of the Board, might reasonably have expected to enjoy some actual pecuniary benefit if she had not suffered disablement or death: 30

“Member of the Emergency Reserve Corps” means any person who was at any time a member of the Emergency Reserve Corps established under the Emergency Reserve Corps Regulations 1941: 35

5 “Member of the family”, in relation to a member of the forces, means the wife, widow, husband, father, or mother, or a son, daughter, grand-father, grandmother, step-father, step-mother, grandson, grand-daughter, step-son, step-daughter, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister, or mother-in-law of the member:

10 “Member of the forces” means any person who is or has at any time been a member of any of Her Majesty’s forces established in New Zealand, whether before or after the commencement of this Act:

15 “Member of the Mercantile Marine” means any person who is or has at any time been the master or any other officer or the pilot or any member of the crew of—

(a) Any ship that is for the time being on New Zealand articles; or

20 (b) Any ship that is engaged in trading exclusively in New Zealand waters but is not on articles; or

(c) Any ship that is for the time being owned and operated by the New Zealand Government or by any Harbour Board:

25 “Minister” means the Minister of Defence:

30 “Secretary” means the Secretary for War Pensions; and includes any person for the time being authorized to exercise or perform any of the powers, duties, or functions of the Secretary.

(2) Terms defined in this section in relation to a member of the forces have corresponding meanings, with any necessary modifications, when used in this Act in relation to persons other than members of the forces.

35 3. The following provisions of this Act are divided into Parts as follows:

PART I—Administration. (Sections 4 to 18.)

PART II—War Pensions. (Sections 19 to 56.)

4. (1) For the purposes of this Act there shall be appointed under the Public Service Act 1912 an officer of the Department to be known as the Secretary for War Pensions. 5

(2) The Secretary, acting under the general direction and control of the Minister, shall be charged with the administration of this Act. 10

5. (1) There may from time to time be appointed under the Public Service Act 1912 an officer of the Department to be known as the Deputy Secretary for War Pensions, who, subject to the control of the Secretary, shall have and may exercise all the powers, duties, and functions of the Secretary. 15

(2) On the occurrence from any cause of a vacancy in the office of Secretary (whether by reason of death, resignation, or otherwise), and in case of the absence from duty of the Secretary (from whatsoever cause arising), and so long as any such vacancy or absence continues, the Deputy Secretary shall have and may exercise all the powers, duties, and functions of the Secretary. 20

(3) The fact that the Deputy Secretary exercises any power, duty, or function of the Secretary shall be conclusive evidence of his authority to do so. 25

6. (1) For the purposes of this Act there shall be such number of War Pensions Boards as the Minister thinks fit. 30

(2) A War Pensions Board shall consist of not less than three and not more than four members, who shall be appointed by the Minister and shall hold office during his pleasure:

Provided that no member of a Board shall hold office for a continuous period of more than three years without reappointment. 35

(3) Not less than one member of each Board shall be a registered medical practitioner and one member of each Board shall be appointed as a representative of the members of the forces on the nomination of the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Incorporated). 40

(4) Each Board shall be distinguished by such distinctive name as the Minister thinks fit.

(5) At any meeting of a Board two members shall form a quorum.

5 7. (1) One of the members of each War Pensions Board shall be appointed by the Minister to be Chairman thereof and shall hold office as Chairman during the pleasure of the Minister.

10. (1) The Minister may from time to time appoint a person to be the deputy of any member of any War Pensions Board or Appeal Board.

(2) Any person appointed as deputy of a member appointed as the representative of the members of the forces shall be nominated in the same manner as that member, and the deputy of a member being a registered medical practitioner shall also be a registered medical practitioner. 5

(3) The deputy of any member shall have authority to act as a member of the Board in the event of the absence from any meeting of the Board of the member whose deputy he is, and, subject to subsection two of section seven of this Act shall in that event have all the powers of that member. 10

Appointments
on nomination of N.Z.R.S.A.
(Inc.).
Serial No.
1945/159, r. 4

11. (1) For the purpose of appointing any member of any War Pensions Board or Appeal Board who is required by this Act to be nominated by the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Incorporated), the Minister may require that Association to submit more than one but not more than three nominations, and on receipt of those nominations the Minister may appoint such one of the persons so nominated as he thinks fit. 15 20

(2) In the event of the Association failing for more than two months to submit to the Minister the names of the required number of nominees, the Minister may temporarily appoint such person as he thinks fit (whether nominated by the Association or not) to act as a member of the Board until the vacancy is filled in accordance with subsection one of this section. 25 30

1951, No. 79,
s. 10 (1)
1951, No. 79

12. There shall be paid to the members of any War Pensions Board or of any Appeal Board remuneration by way of fees, salary, or allowances and travelling allowances and expenses in accordance with the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951, and the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly as if every such Board were a statutory Board within the meaning of that Act. 35 40

Application of Commissions of Inquiry Act
1908.
1943, No. 22,
s. 10
See Reprint of Statutes,
Vol. I, p. 1036

13. For the purpose of carrying out their several functions under this Act, the Secretary, the War Pensions Boards, and the Appeal Boards shall be deemed to be Commissions appointed under the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, and, subject to the provisions of this Act and of any regulations made under this Act, all the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly. 40

Procedure in Respect of Claims for Pensions

14. (1) All claims for or in respect of pensions or allowances under this Act shall be made in writing to the Secretary.

Claims to be sent to Secretary for consideration by Board. 1943, No. 22, s. 11

5 (2) Subject to any delegation of its powers under section fifteen of this Act, a War Pensions Board, as soon as practicable after the submission of any claim, shall consider the same and may either—

- 10 (a) Grant a pension or allowance in accordance with the provisions of this Act; or
 (b) Decline the claim on the ground that the claimant is not entitled to a pension or allowance under this Act.

Delegation of Powers of War Pensions Boards

15 15. (1) A War Pensions Board may from time to time, with the approval of the Minister, delegate to the Secretary, or to any officer of the Department nominated by the Secretary, such of its powers in relation to claims under this Act as it thinks fit:

Board may delegate powers with authority of Minister. 1943, No. 22, s. 12

20 Provided that no delegation under this section shall be construed to confer on the Secretary or any other officer of the Department the power to determine whether or not the disablement or death of a member of the forces occurred while on service overseas or is attributable to his service in New Zealand or overseas, or whether or not the condition that resulted in his disablement or death was aggravated by his service in New Zealand or overseas.

30 (2) Any such delegation may be at any time revoked by the Board in whole or in part, and no such delegation shall prevent the exercise by the Board of any of the powers conferred on it by this Act.

35 (3) Any such delegation may be made subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Board thinks fit, and may be made either generally or in relation to any particular claim or to claims of a particular class.

40 (4) The fact that the Secretary or any other officer of the Department, purporting to act pursuant to powers conferred on him by delegation under this section, exercises in respect of any claim any powers conferred on a Board by this Act shall be sufficient evidence of his authority so to do.

(5) Any decision made by the Secretary or any other officer in the exercise of any powers conferred on him by delegation under this section shall be provisional only, and shall, as soon as practicable after it is made, be referred to a Board, which may confirm the decision, or may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, grant or refuse to grant a pension or allowance, or increase or reduce the rate of any pension or allowance, or terminate any pension or allowance.

Appeals

Appeals from decisions of
War Pensions
Board.
1943, No. 22,
s. 13
Serial No.
1945/159,
r. 31 (3)

16. (1) Within six months after the date on which any decision of a War Pensions Board (whether made before or after the commencement of this Act) has been communicated to him, the claimant, by notice in writing posted or delivered to the Secretary, may appeal from the decision in so far as it consists of—

- (a) The rejection of any claim for a pension in respect of the disablement or death of a member of the forces on the ground that the disablement or death was not attributable to his service as a member of the forces or that the condition that resulted in his disablement or death was not aggravated by that service; or
- (b) The assessment of a pension granted to any member of the forces in so far as the assessment is based on medical grounds.

(2) On receipt of any such appeal the Secretary shall submit the appeal to a War Pensions Appeal Board, which may confirm the decision of the War Pensions Board or may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, grant or refuse to grant a pension, or increase or reduce the rate of any pension, or terminate any pension.

(3) Any decision of an Appeal Board may be made retrospective if and to such extent as that Board thinks fit.

(4) The decision of an Appeal Board shall be final and conclusive:

Provided that, if at any time a claimant whose appeal has been determined satisfies the Secretary that by reason of additional evidence becoming available or for any other reason whatsoever it is desirable in the interests of justice that his claim should be reconsidered, the Secretary shall accept from him a fresh claim and any such claim shall be submitted to a War Pensions Board and dealt with in all respects as if it were an original application for a pension.

Presumptions to Operate in Favour of Claimants for Pensions

17. (1) Where any claim for a pension under this Act is made by or in respect of a member of the forces who, on attesting for service or at any time thereafter, was medically graded as fit for service with the forces, the medical grading shall, except as otherwise provided in this section, be accepted as conclusive proof of the absolute physical and mental fitness of the member at the time of that grading, subject only to any physical or mental conditions qualifying that absolute fitness that may be specifically recorded in the medical record made at the time of the medical grading:

Presumption that disablement or death attributable to service. 1943, No. 22, s. 14

Provided that the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall not apply if the medical grading of the member has been altered by a competent authority within two months after he has been actually attached to the forces for service therein but before he has been subjected to any conditions that have in fact prejudicially affected his physical or mental fitness or to any conditions that may be regarded as having possibly or probably so affected his physical or mental fitness, and the member has been officially informed of the alteration of his grading within three months after he has been so attached to the forces for service therein.

(2) The foregoing presumption in favour of the claimant based on the medical grading of the member shall not operate in any case where it is proved that the member failed to reveal to the medical examiners, after proper inquiry made of him, any material facts in relation to his physical or mental health or history, or where it is proved that by reason of any false statement, non-disclosure, or misrepresentation he was erroneously graded.

(3) In any case in which the foregoing presumption in favour of the claimant does not for any reason apply or is not sufficient to establish his claim, the claimant shall be entitled to produce to a War Pensions Board or an

Appeal Board, as the case may be, any evidence (whether strictly legal evidence or not) to show that the condition that resulted in the disablement or death of the member was possibly or probably attributable to or aggravated by his service with the forces, and if any reasonable evidence to that effect is produced there shall thereby be established a presumption that that condition was in fact attributable to or aggravated by the service of the member, and that presumption may be rebutted only by evidence that satisfies the Board that the condition was not so attributable or aggravated but was due entirely to other causes. 5 10

(4) Where any member of the forces has suffered the loss of, or the permanent loss of the use of, one of any paired organs of the body, and that loss is held to be attributable to his service, the subsequent loss or impairment of the efficiency of the other corresponding organ (from whatever cause arising) shall be conclusively presumed to be attributable to his service. 15

Rules to be Observed by Boards in Determining Claims

Boards not bound by rules of evidence, but must determine all claims in accordance with their merits. 1943, No. 22, s. 15

18. (1) In determining, in relation to any claim for a pension under this Act made by a member of the forces in respect of his disablement or made by any other person in respect of the disablement or death of a member, whether the disablement or death of the member was attributable to his service as a member or whether the condition that resulted in his disablement or death was aggravated by that service, a War Pensions Board or an Appeal Board, as the case may be, shall decide in accordance with substantial justice and the merits of the case, and shall not be bound by any technicalities or legal forms or rules of evidence. 20 25 30

(2) In the application of the general rule formulated in subsection one of this section the following particular rules shall apply—

(a) In no case shall there be on the claimant any onus of proving that the disablement or death on which the claim is based was in fact attributable to the service of the member or that the condition that resulted in the disablement or death of the member was aggravated by his service: 35 40

(b) The claimant shall be given the full benefit of the presumptions in his favour provided for in section seventeen of this Act:

5 (c) A War Pensions Board or an Appeal Board, as the case may be, shall be entitled to draw and shall draw from all the circumstances of the case, from evidence furnished, and from 10 medical opinions submitted to the Board, all reasonable inferences in favour of the claimant, and the claimant shall, in every case, be given the benefit of any doubt as to the existence of any fact, matter, cause, or circumstance that would be favourable to him.

PART II

WAR PENSIONS

Grounds for Payment of Pensions

19. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, pensions in respect of the disablement or death of any member of the forces (whether occurring before or after the 20 commencement of this Act) shall be payable under this Part of this Act to the member and his dependants (in the case of his disablement) or to the dependants of the member (in the case of his death) in any of the following cases, namely:

General provisions as to grounds for payment of pensions. 1943, No. 22, ss. 17, 25

25 (a) In any case where the disablement or death of the member occurred while he was on service overseas as a member of the forces in connection with any war in which Her Majesty was then engaged, or in connection with any 30 emergency, whether arising out of the obligations undertaken by New Zealand in the Charter of the United Nations or otherwise:

(b) In any case where the disablement or death of the member is attributable to his service in 35 New Zealand or overseas:

(c) In any case where the condition that resulted in the disablement or death of the member was aggravated by his service in New Zealand or overseas:

25 Provided that, except with the approval of the Minister, no pension shall be payable under this Part of this Act in respect of the disablement or death of any member if, at the date of his disablement or death, he was a deserter from the forces or was absent without leave and was not in receipt of continuous pay as a member of the forces:

Provided also that where any claim for a pension is made by a member in respect of his disablement a War Pensions Board or an Appeal Board, as the case may be, may decline to grant a pension or may grant a pension at a reduced rate in any case where the Board is satisfied on reasonable evidence that the disablement of the member is attributable in whole or in part to his wilful misconduct during his period of service.

(2) In any case to which paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section applies, the disablement or death of the member, as the case may be, shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be attributable to his service as a member of the forces.

Pensions for Disabled Members of the Forces

Maximum rate of pensions for total disablement.

1940, No. 24, s. 5 (a)

1943, No. 22, ss. 19 (1) (a), (2) (a), 57 (a), (b)

1946, No. 17, s. 2, (3)

1949, No. 25, ss. 2, 8 (a), (b)

1951, No. 23, s. 2

1951, No. 24, s. 2

Rates of pensions for disablement resulting from certain major disabilities.

1943, No. 22, s. 20 (1), (2)

20. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Part of this Act, the rate of the pension payable to a member of the forces in respect of his total disablement shall not exceed the appropriate rate specified in the First Schedule to this Act.

21. (1) Where the disablement of any member of the forces is due in whole or in part to any one of the disabilities specified in the Ninth Schedule to this Act, the rate of the pension payable to the member in respect of his disablement shall, if and so long as he is a bona fide resident of New Zealand, not be less than the appropriate percentage of the maximum rate of pension for total disablement specified in that Schedule.

(2) Where the disablement of the member is due, in whole or in part, to any two or more of the disabilities specified as aforesaid, the minimum rate of the pension payable to the member shall, if and so long as he is a bona fide resident of New Zealand, be ascertained by adding together the appropriate percentages in the Ninth Schedule to this Act in relation to those disabilities:

5 Provided that in no case shall a pension be payable by virtue of this subsection at a rate in excess of the maximum rate that would be payable to him in respect of his total disablement.

10 22. Subject to the provisions of section twenty-one of this Act, the rates of the pension payable to any member of the forces in respect of his partial disablement shall be such lower rates than those payable in respect of total disablement as may in each case be determined by a War Pensions Board, regard being had in every such case to the nature and extent of the disablement.

15 23. (1) This section applies to every case where a pension is payable to a member of the forces in respect of his total disablement and the member—

- (a) Is suffering from total blindness; or
- 20 (b) Is suffering from two or more serious disabilities (whether specified in the Ninth Schedule to this Act or not); or
- (c) Is totally disabled and is permanently bedridden or, if not permanently bedridden, is, in the opinion of a War Pensions Board, so restricted in his activities and pursuits that he is prevented from engaging in normal social and recreational activities.

25 (2) Notwithstanding anything in this Part of this Act, in any case to which this section applies a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, increase the rate of the pension that would otherwise be payable to the member in respect of his disablement by not more than the appropriate rate specified in the First Schedule to this Act.

35 24. Any pension granted under this Part of this Act to a member of the forces in respect of his total or partial disablement shall be a temporary pension or a permanent pension according to whether the disablement of the member is of a temporary or a permanent character:

40 Provided that where, in the opinion of a War Pensions Board, any permanent disablement has not reached its final condition a temporary pension may be granted in respect thereof, and the temporary pension so granted shall, subject to its review in accordance with section twenty-six of this Act, continue in force until a permanent pension is granted.

Rate of pension to be determined by reference to nature of disablement. 1943, No. 22, s. 23

25. (1) Except as provided in subsection two of this section, no account shall be taken of the income or property of the claimant or of any other person in considering a claim by any member of the forces for a pension in respect of his disablement, but the claim shall be determined solely by reference to the nature and extent of the disablement.

(2) In any case where the disablement of the member is attributable solely to his service in New Zealand or is attributable solely to his service out of New Zealand otherwise than in connection with any war, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, in determining the rate of any pension payable to the member in respect of his disablement, take into account any amount paid or payable to him by any person as compensation or damages. In any case where the disablement of a member is attributable solely to his service in New Zealand or elsewhere otherwise than in connection with any war, the Board may, in its discretion, also take into account, in determining the rate of his pension, any amount paid or payable to him by way of pension, retiring allowance, compensation, or otherwise out of any public moneys or out of any Government superannuation fund.

Review of pensions. 1943, No. 22, s. 24

26. (1) Except in any case to which subsection two of section twenty-five of this Act applies, a permanent pension granted under this Part of this Act to any member of the forces shall not thereafter be reduced unless it is conclusively established, beyond any possibility of doubt, that the disablement in respect of which it was granted has in fact proved to be temporary, either to the full extent thereof or in one or more of its essential characteristics.

30
35

(2) Subject to subsection one of this section, any pension granted under this Part of this Act to any member of the forces may from time to time and at any time be reviewed by a War Pensions Board. On the review of any pension in accordance with this subsection the Board, having regard to any change that may have taken place in relation to his disablement in the physical or mental condition of the member since the pension was granted or was last reviewed, as the case may be, may terminate the pension or, within the limits prescribed by this Act, may increase or reduce the rate thereof.

27. If a War Pensions Board is satisfied, on the advice of not less than two medical practitioners having special experience in like cases, that any member of the forces who is in receipt of or is entitled to a pension under this Part of this Act should, in his own interests, undergo medical or curative treatment, whether in a hospital or elsewhere, it may reduce by not more than one-half thereof the amount of the pension to which the member would be otherwise entitled if and so long as the member, without good and sufficient cause, refuses or wilfully fails to undergo such treatment.

Disabled member may be required to undergo medical treatment. 1943, No. 22, s. 39 (1)

28. (1) In addition to the amount of pension payable to any member of the forces in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act, a special allowance for wear and tear on the clothing or footwear of the member at not more than the appropriate rate specified in the First Schedule to this Act may be paid as follows:

Clothing allowance in case of loss of limbs, etc. 1943, No. 22, s. 41 1951, No. 23, s. 8

(a) To any member who has suffered the loss in whole or in part of two limbs:

(b) To any member who has suffered the loss in whole or in part of a leg:

(c) To any member who has suffered the loss in whole or in part of an arm:

(d) To any member who is obliged to use any mechanical or other appliance (other than an artificial leg or artificial arm).

(2) Any allowance granted under this section shall be included in and deemed part of the pension of the member.

29. (1) If, with respect to any member of the forces who is in receipt of a pension under this Part of this Act in respect of his total disablement, a War Pensions Board is satisfied that the services of an attendant are indispensable it may, in its discretion, grant an allowance in respect of the services of an attendant at a rate not exceeding the appropriate rate specified in the Second Schedule to this Act.

Allowance for services of attendant in certain cases. 1943, No. 22, s. 40 1951, No. 23, s. 7

(2) In special cases a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, extend the provisions of subsection one of this section to apply to the case of any member who is in receipt of a pension in respect of his partial disablement.

(3) Any allowance under this section may be paid, in whole or in part, to the attendant or may be paid to the member in respect of the additional expenses incurred by him. Any allowance paid to a member under this section shall not be deemed to form part of his pension.

Pensions for Wives of Disabled Members

30. (1) The rate of the pension payable to the wife of a member of the forces in respect of his total disablement shall not exceed the appropriate rate specified in the Third Schedule to this Act.

(2) The rate of pension payable to the wife of a member of the forces in respect of his partial disablement shall be such lower rate than that payable in respect of total disablement as may in each case be determined by a War Pensions Board, regard being had in every such case to the nature and probable duration of the disablement.

31. (1) In determining a claim for a pension under this Part of this Act made by the wife of a member of the forces in respect of his total or partial disablement, regard shall be had to the property, income, and general economic circumstances of the member, except in the case of a member who is in receipt of a pension for total blindness.

(2) Except as provided in subsection one of this section, no account shall be taken of the income or property of the claimant or of any other person in determining any such claim.

(3) Any pension to which this section applies (not being a pension granted in respect of the total blindness of a member) may be at any time reviewed by a War Pensions Board in the event of any change in the economic circumstances of the member, and, on the review of any pension in accordance with this section, the Board may terminate the pension or, within the limits prescribed by this Act, may increase or reduce the rate thereof.

(2) Where the widow has a child or children of the member dependent upon her a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, increase the pension otherwise payable to the widow by a mother's allowance at a rate not exceeding the appropriate rate specified in the said Fourth Schedule.

Struck out

(3) A mother's allowance payable in respect of any child—
(a) Shall commence on such day as the Board determines, being not earlier than the first day of the month in which the child is born:
(b) In the event of the death of the child, continue to such day as a War Pensions Board determines, being not later than the last day of the month in which the child dies.

New

(3) A mother's allowance in respect of any child—
(a) Shall commence on such day as a War Pensions Board determines, being not earlier than the first day of the month in which the child is born:
(b) Where the child is over the age of sixteen years, may be granted or continued, as if the child had not attained that age, during any period during which a pension is payable to or on behalf of the child in accordance with section forty-three of this Act:
(c) In the event of the death of the child, shall continue to such day as a War Pensions Board determines, being not later than the last day of the month in which the child dies.

33. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the rate of the pension payable to the widow of a deceased member of the forces in respect of his death shall, if and so long as she is a bona fide resident of New Zealand, be the maximum appropriate rate prescribed in the Fourth Schedule to this Act.

1948, No. 78 s. 26 (1)

35. (1) A pension payable to the widow of a member of the forces shall cease on her remarriage. 5

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subsection one of this section, on the remarriage of a widow while in receipt of a pension under this Part of this Act a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, continue the pension at such rate, not exceeding the maximum rate of pension payable to a widow, and for such period, not exceeding two years, as the Board thinks fit. Any such pension may at any time be reviewed by a War Pensions Board. 10

(3) In any case to which subsection two of this section applies the Board may, in its discretion, instead of continuing the pension, pay to the widow a lump sum gratuity not exceeding two years' pension. 15

(4) For the purposes of this Act and any other enactment a pension payable to a woman under subsection two of this section shall be deemed to be a pension payable to the widow of a member of the forces. 20

39. (1) In determining a claim for a pension under this Part of this Act made by or on behalf of any child of a member of the forces in respect of his total or partial disablement, regard shall be had to the property, income, and general economic circumstances of the member, except in the case of a member who is in receipt of a pension for total blindness.

Economic position of disabled member to be considered in determining rate of pension for children. 1943, No. 22, s. 30

(2) Except as provided in subsection one of this section, no account shall be taken of the income or property of the claimant or of any other person in determining any such claim.

(3) Any pension to which this section applies (not being a pension granted in respect of the total blindness of a member) may be at any time reviewed by a War Pensions Board in the event of any change in the economic circumstances of the member, and, on the review of any pension in accordance with this section, the Board may terminate the pension, or, within the limits prescribed by this Act, may increase or reduce the rate thereof.

40. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Part of this Act,—

Increased pensions for children in certain cases. 1943, No. 22, s. 31
1951, No. 23, s. 5

(a) The rate of the pension payable to or on behalf of a child whose parents are dead shall be a rate not exceeding the appropriate rate specified in the Fifth Schedule to this Act:

(b) The rate of the pension payable to or on behalf of a child of a deceased member of the forces where the child is not under the control of its mother shall be such rate not exceeding the appropriate rate specified in the Fifth Schedule to this Act as a War Pensions Board, in its discretion, may determine. 5

41. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, a pension shall not be payable in respect of—
(a) Any illegitimate child of a member of the forces born more than ten months after the date of commencement of his service as a member of the forces; or
(b) Any illegitimate child who is not actually residing in New Zealand: 15

Provided that a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, grant a pension in any such case as aforesaid.

Child not to receive pension in respect of more than one parent.
1943, No. 22, s. 32 (5)

42. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, a pension in respect of the disablement or death of any member of the forces shall not be payable to or on behalf of any child of the member for any period for which a pension under this Act is payable to or on behalf of the same child in respect of the disablement or death of any other person. 20

Duration of pensions for children.
1943, No. 22, s. 33
1949, No. 25, s. 5

43. (1) A pension granted to or on behalf of a child of a member of the forces in respect of his disablement or death shall commence on such day as the Board determines, being not earlier than the first day of the month in which the child is born. 25

(2) Save as provided in this section, a pension granted to or on behalf of a child of a member of the forces in respect of his disablement or death shall not continue after the end of the month in which the child has attained the age of sixteen years. 30

(3) A pension granted to or on behalf of any female child of a member of the forces may be continued until the end of the month in which she attains the age of seventeen years. 35

(4) A pension granted to or on behalf of any child suffering from any mental or physical infirmity may be continued for any period while the infirmity continues. 40

(5) A War Pensions Board may, for the purpose of assisting in the further education of any child, continue for such period as it thinks fit a pension granted to or on behalf of that child.

5 (6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing provisions of this Act, a pension may be granted to or on behalf of any child who has attained the age of sixteen years or more at any time when, if a pension had been already granted, it could be continued in force
10 pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this section.

(7) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section eighty-five of this Act, where a child to whom or on whose behalf a pension has been granted under this Act dies, the pension shall continue to the end of the 15 month in which the child dies, and the amount (if any) unpaid on the date of the death of the child shall be paid to the person to whom the pension was payable on that date, or, in the discretion of a War Pensions Board, to such other person as the Board thinks fit.

20 Pensions for Other Dependants

44. The rates of pension payable to any dependant of a disabled or deceased member of the forces (other than his wife, widow, or child) shall not exceed the maximum rate of pension prescribed for the wife or 25 widow, as the case may be, of a member of the same rank or rating.

Economic position of dependant to be considered in determining rate of pension.
1943, No. 22, s. 37

46. (1) In determining the rate of pension payable to any dependant of a member of the forces, other than the wife or widow or a child of the member, a War Pensions Board shall, to such extent as in any case it deems proper and equitable, take into account the property and income from all sources of the claimant and any other relevant factors of economic significance. 5

(2) Any pension to which this section applies may be at any time reviewed by a War Pensions Board in the event of any change in the property or income or general economic circumstances of the dependant, and, on the review of any pension in accordance with this section, the Board may terminate the pension or, within the limits prescribed by this Act, may increase or reduce the rate thereof. 10 15

Miscellaneous Provisions as to Pensions for Dependants

Increased pensions to wife and children of member in receipt of economic pension.
1943, No. 22, s. 53

47. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Part of this Act, where, pursuant to Part III of this Act, an economic pension is granted to any member of the forces who is in receipt of a pension under this Part of this Act in respect of his partial disablement, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, increase the rate of the pension payable under this Part of this Act to the wife or to any child or children of the member to a rate not exceeding the maximum rate of pension that could be granted to the claimant in respect of the total disablement of the member. 20 25

Pension to widow or child of deceased member whose death is not attributable to his service.
1943, No. 22, s. 42
1947, No. 26, s. 6

48. Where any member of the forces, while in receipt of a permanent pension under this Part of this Act at a rate not less than seventy per cent of the maximum rate of pension that would be payable in respect of his total disablement, has died, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, from any cause not attributable to his service as a member of the forces, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, grant a pension to or on behalf of the widow or any dependent child or dependent children of the member, in all respects as if the death of the member were attributable to his service. 30 35

49. (1) All pensions granted to the dependants of a member of the forces in respect of his disablement shall be terminated by the death of the member, but nothing herein shall affect the right of any such dependant to 5 apply for and be granted a pension in accordance with this Act in respect of the death of the member.

Pensions to dependants in respect of disablement of member to cease on his death.

1943, No. 22, s. 43

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subsection one of this section, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, continue for a period, expiring not later
 10 than the end of the month next after the month in which a member of the forces has died, any pension theretofore granted in respect of his disablement to or on behalf of any dependant of the member and current at the date of his death.

(3) If any pension, allowance, or benefit payable out of public money is granted to the dependant, to take effect during the aforesaid period, the amount of any pension paid or approved for payment under this section
 15 may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other Act, be taken into account in determining the amount of that other pension, allowance, or benefit to be 20 paid in respect of the same period.

Increased Pensions for Member of Forces and Dependants

50. If, for the purpose of undergoing any medical, surgical, or curative treatment, it is necessary, in the opinion of a War Pensions Board, that a partially disabled member of the forces should be obliged to live
 25 away from home or be absent from work for one or more days in any week, the Board may increase the rates of the pensions payable to that member and his dependants or any of them in respect of the period of that treatment, but so that the total amount payable shall not in any 30 case exceed the amount that would be payable in the case of the total disablement of the member.
 35

Increased pensions while member undergoing medical treatment.

1943, No. 22, s. 39 (2)

Pensions for Persons Other Than Dependants

51. (1) A War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, grant a pension under this Part of this Act in respect of the death of a member of the forces to any woman who 40 satisfies the Board that she has the control and care of any child or children of that member in respect of whom a pension is payable,

Pensions for guardians of motherless children.

1943, No. 22, s. 36

1951, No. 23, s. 6

(2) The rate of a pension under this section shall not in any case exceed the maximum rate of pension payable to the wife of a member of the forces.

(3) A pension under this section shall, unless sooner terminated, cease as soon as the person in receipt thereof has not the control and care of any child of the member in respect of whom a pension is payable. 5

Pensions for other persons. 1943, No. 22, s. 45

52. (1) A War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, grant a pension under this Part of this Act in respect of the disablement or death of a member of the forces to any person, not being a dependant of that member within the meaning of this Act, if the claimant for a pension under this section satisfies the Board that he has suffered material loss of income or property by reason of the disablement or death of the member and that he has not adequate means of support. 10 15

(2) The rate of a pension granted under this section shall not in any case exceed the maximum rate of pension prescribed for the wife or widow, as the case may be, of a member of the same rank or rating. 20

Economic position of claimant to be considered in determining rate of pension. 1943, No. 22, s. 37

53. (1) In determining the rate of pension payable to any claimant for a pension under section fifty-one or section fifty-two of this Act, the Board shall, to such extent as in any case it deems proper and equitable, take into account the property and income from all sources of the claimant and any other relevant factors of economic significance. 25

(2) Any pension to which this section applies may be at any time reviewed by a War Pensions Board and on any such review the Board may terminate the pension, or, within the limits prescribed by this Act, may increase or reduce the rate thereof. 30

Extension of This Part to Cover Special Cases

Members of forces officially reported as missing. 1943, No. 22, s. 38

54. (1) Pensions under this Part of this Act shall be payable in respect of a member of the forces who is officially reported as missing in the same manner in all respects as if the member had died in the course of his service on the date on which he was reported missing. 35

(2) In the event of the member being subsequently reported as dead, a War Pensions Board shall make inquiries as to the cause of death and shall either confirm the payment of the pension or terminate the pension according to whether or not a pension is payable in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Act. 40

(3) In the event of the member being subsequently reported as living, all pensions under this section, together with any economic pensions under Part III of this Act, shall be terminated and the amount theretofore paid by way of pension to any person may, with the approval of the Minister, be recovered from the accumulated pay of the member or be recovered from the recipient as a debt due to the Crown.

55. (1) A War Pensions Board, with the approval of the Minister, may grant a pension under this Part of this Act in respect of the disablement or death of any person who, being a bona fide resident of New Zealand at the commencement of his service, served overseas in connection with any war or emergency otherwise than as a member of the forces, and in respect of his service was in receipt of pay from the New Zealand Government.

Service otherwise than as member of forces.

1943, No. 22, s. 46

(2) Pensions under this section shall be payable to persons of the same classes and in the same cases and manner in all respects as if they were pensions payable to members of the forces or their dependants or other persons under the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act.

(3) No pension shall be granted under this section at a rate in excess of the rate that would be payable in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act in respect of the disablement or death of a member of the forces.

56. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, grant a pension under this Part of this Act in respect of the disablement or death of any person who, being a bona fide resident of New Zealand at the commencement of his service, served in connection with any war or emergency as a member of any forces established in any country of the Commonwealth (other than New Zealand) and whose death is attributable to or whose disablement is attributable to or has been aggravated by that service.

Service as member of other Commonwealth forces.

1943, No. 22, s. 47

1951, No. 23, s. 13

(2) Where any claimant for a pension under this section in respect of the disablement or death of a member of the forces of any country of the Commonwealth (other than New Zealand) is in receipt of a pension from the Government of that country in respect of the member's disablement or death, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, accept the disablement or death as attributable to the member's service in those forces.

(3) No pension shall be payable under this section to or in respect of a member of any forces while the claimant or pensioner is not actually resident in New Zealand. 5

(4) No pension shall be granted under this section at such a rate that the aggregate rate of the pensions payable in respect of the disablement or death of the member (including any overseas pension) shall exceed the aggregate rate of the pensions that would have been payable if the member in respect of whose disablement or death the pension is granted had been a member of the New Zealand forces. 10 15

PART III

ECONOMIC PENSIONS

"Economic pension" defined.
1943, No. 22,
s. 48

57. For the purposes of this Part of this Act the expression "economic pension" means a supplementary pension granted on economic grounds to any person of a class specified in section fifty-eight of this Act. 20

Classes of persons entitled to claim economic pension.
1943, No. 22,
s. 49

58. (1) Claims for the grant of an economic pension under this Part of this Act may be made only by or on behalf of— 25

- (a) A member of the forces who is in receipt of a pension under Part II of this Act in respect of his disablement; or
- (b) The widow of a deceased member of the forces who is in receipt of a pension under Part II of this Act in respect of the death of the member; or 30
- (c) The widowed mother of a deceased member of the forces who is in receipt of a pension under Part II of this Act in respect of the death of the member; or 35
- (d) Any person who is in receipt of a pension under section fifty-five or section fifty-six of this Act in respect of his own disablement, or any widow who is in receipt of a pension under either of those sections in respect of the death 40 of her husband or son, as the case may be, or any person who is disqualified from receiving any such pension under section fifty-six of this Act by reason only that the pension received by him from an overseas Government is not less than the pension that would be payable under Part II of this Act to or in respect of a member of the New Zealand forces.

(2) For the purposes of this section the wife or widowed mother of a member of the forces who is officially reported as missing shall be deemed to be the widow or widowed mother, as the case may be, of a deceased member of the forces.

59. (1) The grant of an economic pension and the rate of any such pension shall, subject to section sixty of this Act, be in the discretion of a War Pensions Board.

(2) In considering a claim for an economic pension the Board shall take into account, to such extent as in the circumstances of the case it thinks proper and equitable, the ability of the claimant to obtain and retain suitable employment, the income and property of the claimant and his wife or her husband (if any), the cost of living, and such other factors of economic significance as are considered relevant:

Provided that the Board shall take no account of any income of the claimant and his wife or her husband (if any) up to the appropriate rate specified in the Sixth Schedule to this Act.

60. The rate of an economic pension granted under this Part of this Act shall not in any case exceed the appropriate rate specified in the Sixth Schedule to this Act.

61. (1) If a War Pensions Board is satisfied with respect to any claimant for an economic pension or with respect to any person in receipt of an economic pension—

- (a) That he has voluntarily become unemployed without a good and sufficient reason; or
- (b) That he has lost his employment by reason of any misconduct as a worker; or

(c) That he has refused or failed, without a good and sufficient reason, to accept any offer of suitable employment—

the Board may decline any claim for an economic pension under this Part of this Act, or it may grant an economic pension at a lower rate than it would grant in other circumstances, or it may reduce the rate of or may terminate an economic pension theretofore granted. 5

(2) Nothing in subsection one of this section shall apply with respect to the widowed mother of a deceased member of the forces or to the widow of a deceased member while she has the care and control of any child to or on behalf of whom any pension is payable under this Act. 10

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the discretionary powers conferred on the Board by section fifty-nine of this Act. 15

PART IV

MERCANTILE MARINE PENSIONS

Pensions for members of mercantile marine and their dependants in respect of disablement or death resulting from Second World War.

1940, No. 24,
s. 3

1946, No. 18,
s. 2 (2)

62. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, pensions and allowances in respect of the disablement or death of any member of the mercantile marine shall be payable under this Part of this Act to the member and his dependants (in the case of his disablement) or to the dependants of the member (in the case of his death) in any of the following cases, namely: 20 25

(a) In any case where the disablement or death of the member occurred in the course of his employment or engagement as a member of the mercantile marine, and is directly attributable to the Second World War: 30

(b) In any case where the death of the member has occurred after the termination of his employment or engagement as a member of the mercantile marine, and is attributable to a disablement which occurred in the course of that employment or engagement and which is directly attributable to the Second World War: 35

Provided that no pension shall be payable under this Part of this Act in respect of the disablement or death of any member if in respect of the same disablement or of his death any pension is payable under Part II or Part V of this Act.

(2) Save as expressly provided in this Part of this Act, all the provisions of this Act (except Parts V and VI) shall, as far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, apply with respect to pensions and allowances under this Part of this Act as if members of the mercantile marine were members of the forces and, in any case to which section sixty-three of this Act applies, as if members of the mercantile marine of any other Commonwealth country were members of the forces of that country.

63. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, grant a pension or allowance under this Part of this Act in respect of the disablement or death of any person who, being a bona fide resident of New Zealand at the commencement of his employment or engagement, served as a member of the mercantile marine of any country of the Commonwealth (other than New Zealand) in any of the following cases, namely:

(a) In any case where the disablement or death of the person occurred in the course of his employment or engagement as a member of that mercantile marine, and is directly attributable to the Second World War:

(b) In any case where the death of the person has occurred after the termination of his employment or engagement as a member of that mercantile marine, and is attributable to a disablement which occurred in the course of that employment or engagement and which is directly attributable to the Second World War.

(2) Where any claimant for a pension or allowance under this section in respect of the disablement or death of a member of the mercantile marine of any country of the Commonwealth (other than New Zealand) is in receipt of a pension or allowance from the Government of that country in respect of the member's disablement or death, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, accept the disablement or death as having occurred in

mercantile marine.
1943, No. 21,
s. 3

the course of that employment or engagement or, as the case may be, accept the death as being attributable to a disablement which occurred in the course of that employment or engagement.

(3) No pension or allowance shall be payable under this section to or in respect of a member of any mercantile marine while the claimant or pensioner is not actually resident in New Zealand. 5

(4) No pension or allowance shall be granted under this section at such a rate that the aggregate rate of the pensions and allowances payable in respect of the disablement or death of the member (including any overseas pension or allowance) shall exceed the aggregate rate of the pensions and allowances that would have been payable if the member in respect of whose disablement or death the pension or allowance is granted had been a member of the New Zealand mercantile marine. 10 15

Compensation
or damages not payable if pension payable.
1940, No. 24,
s. 10

64. No person shall be entitled to claim any compensation or damages in respect of the disablement or death of any member of the mercantile marine if in respect of that disablement or death he is entitled to claim a pension or allowance under this Part of this Act. 20

PART V

EMERGENCY RESERVE CORPS PENSIONS

Pensions for members of Emergency
Reserve Corps and their dependants in respect of disablement or death attributable to their service.
1943, No. 22,
s. 55
1946, No. 17,
s. 4
1949, No. 25,
s. 8
1951, No. 23,
s. 10

65. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, pensions and allowances in respect of the disablement or death of any member of the Emergency Reserve Corps shall be payable under this Part of this Act to the member and his dependants (in the case of his disablement) or to the dependants of the member (in the case of his death) in any of the following cases, namely: 25 30

(a) In any case where the disablement or death of the member occurred in the course of his service as a member of the Emergency Reserve Corps, and is directly attributable to that service: 35

(b) In any case where the death of the member has occurred after the termination of his service as a member of the Emergency Reserve Corps, and is attributable to a disablement which occurred in the course of that service and which is directly attributable to that service; 40

5 Provided that no pension shall be payable under this Part of this Act in respect of the disablement or death of any member if in respect of the same disablement or his death any pension is payable under Part II or Part IV of this Act.

10 (2) Save as expressly provided in this Part of this Act, all the provisions of this Act (except Parts IV and VI) shall, as far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, apply with respect to pensions and allowances under this Part of this Act as if members of the Emergency Reserve Corps were members of the forces.

15 66. A War Pensions Board may, in determining the rate of any pension payable in respect of the disablement or death of any member of the Emergency Reserve Corps, take into account any amounts paid or payable to or on behalf of the claimant by any person as compensation or damages in respect of that disablement or death, or may terminate any pension or reduce the rate thereof on 20 account of the receipt of any such compensation or damages.

Compensation or damages may be taken into account in assessing rates of pensions. 1943, No. 22, s. 59

PART VI

WAR VETERANS' ALLOWANCES

25 67. For the purposes of this Part of this Act the term "veteran" means—

- (a) Any male person who, having been a member of the forces within the meaning of this Act, has served as such with a unit in actual engagement with the enemy or who, by reason of the period of his overseas service and the arduous or dangerous nature of his service, is, in the opinion of a War Pensions Board, a proper person for the grant of a war veteran's allowance under this Part of this Act; or
- 30
- 35 (b) Any female person who, having been a member of the forces within the meaning of this Act, has served overseas as such in connection with any war or emergency;

"Veteran" defined. 1943, No. 22, s. 60 1952, No. 81, s. 17

Provided that for the purposes of this section a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, regard as a member of the forces any person who, being a bona fide resident of New Zealand at the commencement of any war or emergency in which members of the New Zealand forces have served as such, has served in that war or emergency as a member of the forces of any other country of the Commonwealth. 5

Allowances for war veterans and their dependants.

1943, No. 22, s. 61

1951, No. 23, s. 15

68. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, allowances shall be payable thereunder to or on account of— 10

(a) Any veteran who satisfies a War Pensions Board that he is unfit for permanent employment by reason of physical or mental infirmity, and that he has resided continuously in New Zealand during the five years immediately preceding the date of his claim for an allowance or, if he has not so resided in New Zealand, that his absences from New Zealand during the five years immediately preceding the date of his claim have not in the aggregate exceeded six months increased by one month for every year of his actual residence in New Zealand in excess of five years: 15 20

Provided that for the purposes of this paragraph residence in New Zealand shall not be deemed to be interrupted by absences therefrom while serving as a member of any forces established in any country of the Commonwealth: 25 30

Provided further that if any veteran leaves New Zealand while in receipt of an allowance under this Part of this Act, and returns to New Zealand within five years thereafter, he shall not on any subsequent application for an allowance be required to comply with the residential qualifications prescribed by this paragraph: 35

(b) The wife of any such veteran.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection one of this section, no allowance shall be payable under this Part of this Act— 40

(a) To or on account of any person who is in receipt of an economic pension under Part III of this Act; or 45

(b) To or on account of any person who is in receipt of a pension under Part II, Part IV, or Part V of this Act as the wife of a disabled person; or

(c) On account of the wife of a veteran if the wife is in receipt of an allowance under this Part of this Act in her own right.

(3) Whether or not any claimant for an allowance under this Part of this Act is unfit for permanent employment by reason of mental or physical infirmity shall be a question of fact to be determined in the first instance by a War Pensions Board.

(4) From every decision of a Board under subsection three of this section there shall be a right of appeal to a War Pensions Appeal Board, and, in the event of appeal, the decision of the Appeal Board shall be final. Except as provided in this subsection, every decision of a War Pensions Board under this section shall be final.

15

69. (1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Part of this Act, the rate of the allowance payable to any person under this Part of this Act shall be the appropriate rate specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Act.

20

(2) For the purpose of computing any allowance under this section, a veteran who is living apart from his wife or her husband, as the case may be, may, in the discretion of a War Pensions Board, be regarded as an unmarried person.

25

(3) In determining for the purposes of this section the income of any person, a War Pensions Board shall take no account of any pension under this Act received by any person in respect of his own disablement, or of any pension (other than a mother's allowance) under Part II, Part IV, or Part V of this Act received by any woman in respect of the death of her husband.

30

70. Where any person in receipt of an allowance under this Part of this Act or the wife of any such person has attained the age of sixty-five years, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, grant a supplementary allowance at a rate not exceeding the appropriate rate specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Act.

71. (1) In any case where the rate of an allowance under section sixty-nine or section seventy of this Act is computed with reference to the wife of the veteran, the allowance so computed shall, as a War Pensions Board may determine, be paid to the veteran personally or be allocated in such proportions as the Board determines between the veteran and his wife. 5

(2) Any allocation under this section may be made by a Board on the grant of the allowance or at any time thereafter. In particular, if at any time the provisions of section seventy-two or section eighty-seven of this Act become applicable to any person to or in respect of whom an allowance under this Part of this Act has been granted, an allocation, if not theretofore made, shall then be made so that only so much of the allowance shall be forfeited as is deemed by the Board to be for the personal benefit of that person. 10 15

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the provisions of sections seventy-two and eighty-seven of this Act. 20

(4) Any allocation made under this section may be at any time varied by a War Pensions Board.

(5) A certificate under the hand of the Secretary shall be conclusive evidence of any allocation made under this section, or of the variation of any such allocation. 25

73. In the event of the circumstances of any veteran to whom an allowance has been granted under this Part of this Act being altered, or for any other sufficient reason, a War Pensions Board, from such date as it thinks fit, may terminate the allowance, or, within the limits prescribed by the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Act, may increase or reduce the rate thereof. 35 40

74. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, on the death of any veteran while in receipt of an allowance under this Part of this Act leaving a widow in respect of whom an allowance has been paid under this Part or leaving any child or children dependent upon him, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, continue the allowance at such rate, not exceeding the appropriate rate specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Act, and for such period, not exceeding two years, as the Board thinks fit.

(2) An allowance granted under this section may at any time be reviewed by a War Pensions Board.

(3) In any case to which this section applies the Board may, in its discretion, instead of continuing the allowance, pay to or on behalf of the widow or any dependent child or children of the veteran a lump sum gratuity not exceeding two years' allowance.

75. On the death of the wife of a veteran while the veteran is in receipt of an allowance under this Part of this Act as a married veteran, the allowance may, in the discretion of a War Pensions Board, be continued to such date, not later than the end of the month next after the month in which the wife died, and at such rate, not exceeding the maximum rate for a married veteran, as the Board thinks fit, and the rate of the allowance shall thereafter be reduced to the appropriate rate for an unmarried veteran.

Allowance to married veteran to be reduced after death of his wife.

PART VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

76. Where application is made for a pension or allowance under this Act in respect of the disablement or death of a Maori, a Maori woman who has been married to him in accordance with Maori custom before the first day of April, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, may be deemed by a War Pensions Board to be his wife within the meaning of this Act, and the children of a marriage so recognized shall be deemed to be his legitimate children.

Wives and children of Maoris.
1943, No. 22, s. 44

77. For the purposes of any claim for a pension or allowance under this Act, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, regard as the wife or widow of any male person any woman who, though not legally married to him, is living or has lived with him as his wife on a permanent domestic basis and is or was wholly or partly dependent on him.

Money received for military decorations. 1943, No. 22, s. 70 (2)

78. In computing the rate of any pension or allowance under this Act, a War Pensions Board shall take no account of any moneys received in respect of any military decoration. 5

Personal earnings from domestic service in a private home. 1950, No. 47, s. 10

79. In computing the rate of any pension or allowance under this Act, a War Pensions Board may, in its discretion, take no account of the personal earnings of any woman from domestic service in a private home up to the appropriate rate specified in the Eighth Schedule to this Act. 10

Limitation of claims by persons entitled to two or more pensions for disablement of same person. 1943, No. 22, s. 70 (1)

80. Where a claim for a pension or allowance under this Act is made in respect of the disablement of any person by a claimant who is then in receipt of a pension or allowance granted in New Zealand under this or any other Act in respect of the disablement of the same person, the rate of the pension (if any) that may be granted to the claimant under this Act shall not exceed the difference between the aggregate of the rates of the pensions and allowances that have been already granted to the claimant and the aggregate of the rates of the maximum pensions and allowances that could be granted to the claimant under this Act if all the claims in respect of the disablement of that person had arisen in respect of one occasion only and a pension therefor had been payable in accordance with this Act. 15 20 25

Rates of pension where overseas pension payable. 1951, No. 23, s. 21
1938, No. 7; reprinted, 1948, Vol. II, p. 1251

81. (1) In this section—

“Analogous New Zealand pension” means a pension or other periodical allowance under this Act or under the Social Security Act 1938 that is deemed by a War Pensions Board to be analogous to an overseas pension: 30

“Overseas pension” means a pension or other periodical allowance granted elsewhere than in New Zealand. 35

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, where any person entitled to receive a pension or allowance under this Act or the wife or husband of any such person is for the time being in receipt of an overseas pension, a War Pensions Board may grant the pension or allowance at such rate as it thinks fit, but so that the 40 aggregate of the rates of that pension or allowance and of the overseas pension (or of so much thereof as is equivalent to the analogous New Zealand pension) shall not exceed the aggregate of the rates of pension or allowance that could be granted if he or she were in receipt of the analogous New Zealand pension.

Payment of pensions out of New Zealand. 1943, No. 22, s. 74
1948, No. 78, s. 27

86. (1) Except as provided in this section no pension or allowance under this Act shall be paid in respect of any period during which the claimant or the pensioner is not for the time being in New Zealand.

(2) Pensions, allowances, and gratuities under Part II, Part III, Part IV, or Part V of this Act may be granted and paid to any member of the forces or of the mercantile marine or of the Emergency Reserve Corps, or to the father, mother, wife, or widow or any child of any such member, notwithstanding that the claimant or the person to whom the pension has been granted, as the case may be, may be out of New Zealand.

(3) Allowances under Part VI of this Act may, in the discretion of a War Pensions Board, be paid in respect of any period during which the person to whom the allowance has been granted is temporarily absent from New Zealand.

(4) For the purposes of this section, persons in respect of whose disablement or death pensions are granted under section fifty-five of this Act shall be deemed to be members of the forces.

Refusal or forfeiture of pension in certain cases. 1943, No. 22, s. 75
1945, No. 12, s. 4
1946, No. 17, s. 7

87. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, a War Pensions Board, in its discretion, may refuse to grant a pension or allowance, or may terminate any pension or allowance, or may forfeit, in whole or in part, any instalment or instalments of a pension or allowance, in any case where the claimant or pensioner is undergoing imprisonment or any form of detention in a penal institution, or, in the opinion of the Board, is of notoriously bad character or has been guilty of gross misconduct dishonouring him in the public estimation, or being a woman is living as the wife of a man to whom she is not married.

(2) Where any instalment of a pension or allowance that has been granted to any person is forfeited, in whole or in part, under subsection one of this section, there may, in the discretion of a War Pensions Board, be paid to or on behalf of his or her dependants, or any of them, the whole of the amount or such part thereof as the Board thinks fit.

Appeals to a Magistrate. 1943, No. 22, s. 76

88. (1) Every claimant for or person in receipt of a pension or allowance under this Act who is aggrieved by the refusal or termination of a pension or allowance or by the forfeiture of any instalment on any of the grounds mentioned in subsection one of section eighty-seven of this Act may require the Board to submit the matter to a Stipendiary Magistrate for investigation, and thereupon the Board shall submit the matter accordingly.

5 (2) As soon as conveniently may be after the matter has been so submitted to him, the Magistrate shall make such inquiries as he thinks proper with respect to the character or conduct of the person concerned, and for that purpose shall have the same powers to require the 10 attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence, and to take evidence on oath, as if the matter were a proceeding under the Magistrates' Courts Act 1947.

1947, No. 16

(3) On the conclusion of his investigation the Magistrate shall report the result thereof to the Board, and, if the Magistrate so recommends, the Board shall 15 thereupon grant a pension or allowance, or restore any pension or allowance that has been terminated, or pay to the person entitled thereto any amount that has been forfeited, under the foregoing provisions of this section.

20 (4) Every investigation by a Magistrate for the purposes of this section shall be conducted in private.

89. (1) No pension or allowance under this Act shall be capable of being assigned or charged or of passing to any other person by operation of law:

Pensions and allowances absolutely inalienable.

25 Provided that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent a War Pensions Board from authorizing, with or without the consent of the person to whom the pension or allowance was granted, the payment of the whole or any portion thereof to any other person for the benefit 30 of the person to whom it was granted or for the benefit of his wife or of any dependent child or dependent children.

1943, No. 22, s. 71

(2) Every person commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding 35 fifty pounds who demands or accepts any certificate or any acknowledgment or undertaking that would constitute a legal or equitable assignment of or charge upon any pension or allowance under this Act if the same were capable of being legally assigned or charged.

Reprint of Statutes, Vol. VIII, p. 568

97. (1) The enactments specified in the Tenth Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed. 35

(2) Without limiting the provisions of the Acts Interpretation Act 1924, it is hereby declared that the repeal of any provision by this Act shall not affect any document made or any thing whatsoever done under the provision so repealed or under any corresponding former provision, and every such document or thing, so 40 far as it is subsisting or in force at the time of the repeal and could have been made or done under this Act, shall continue and have effect as if it had been made or done under the corresponding provision of this Act and as if that provision had been in force when the document was made or the thing was done.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, where, at the date of the passing of this Act, any person is, by virtue of the provisions of subsections two and three of section nineteen of the War Pensions Amendment Act 1951, in receipt of a pension or allowance to which he would not otherwise be entitled or at a greater rate than that to which he would otherwise be entitled, a War Pensions Board may continue that pension or allowance as if the said section nineteen had not been repealed by this section. 1951, No. 23

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, where, at the date of the passing of this Act, any pension in respect of any child is, by virtue of the provisions of section five of the War Pensions Amendment Act 1946, payable at a rate in excess of that provided for in this Act, a War Pensions Board may continue that pension as if the said section five had not been repealed by this section. 1946, No. 17
