APPLE AND PEAR MARKETING AMENDMENT BILL

Proposed Amendment

Right Hon. Mr MACINTYRE, in Committee, to move the following amendment:

To insert, after clause 5, the following clause:

5A. Remuneration and travelling expenses of members of Board, Authority, and Committees—The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 36, and substituting the following section:

“36. (1) The Board shall pay to its members, and to the members of any advisory or technical committee appointed by the Board, such fees, salary, allowances, and travelling allowances and expenses, as the Board by resolution from time to time determines.

“(2) The Board shall pay to members of the Authority remuneration by way of fees, salary, or allowances and travelling allowances and expenses, in accordance with the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951; and—

“(a) The Authority is hereby declared to be a statutory Board within the meaning of that Act; and

“(b) That Act shall apply accordingly.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This amendment inserts into the Bill a new clause that amends the principal Act to allow the New Zealand Apple and Pear Marketing Board to determine the fees and allowances payable to its members and the members of its committees. At present these are determined under the Fees and Travelling Allowances Act 1951.
