

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Tuesday, the 31st day of July, 1883.

NOTICES RELATING TO ORDERS OF THE DAY.

AUCTIONEERS BILL.

Hon. Mr. DICK, in Committee, to move the following amendments:—

Clause 6. To omit the words, “after the expiration of the fourteen days last mentioned,” and to substitute “at some time during the third week of the months of December and June in each year.”

Clause 7. To omit all the words of the first paragraph, after “forty pounds,” in line 21.

Clause 12. To be omitted, and the following substituted:—

All licenses shall take effect on the first day of January or the first day of July respectively ensuing next after the grant of the certificate for such license, and shall continue in force for twelve months from such day inclusive.

Clause 13. To insert the words “January and ” before “July.”

Clause 14. To add the following words:—

And any such license may be extended in force until the thirty-first day of December or the thirtieth day of June respectively ensuing next after the expiration of the license, by an indorsement on the license to that effect by the local authority, and on payment in respect of such extension of license of a part of the fee of forty pounds proportionate to the time for which the license is extended.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE BILL.

Mr. DE LAUTOUR, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

No bill, note, or cheque shall attach any liability to any aboriginal native unless it shall, if not written in Maori, have a Maori translation indorsed thereon; and shall also show upon its face that such bill, note, or cheque was duly interpreted to such Native at the time of the making or acceptance thereof, and that such Native understood the liability for payment imposed thereby.

BANKRUPTCY BILL.

Hon. Mr. CONOLLY, on the recommittal of the Bill, to move the following amendments:—

Clause 139. To commence as follows:—

All costs, charges, allowances, and expenses properly incurred by or payable by the assignee in the execution of his office under this Act shall be paid in priority of any debts.

After line 9, strike out subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4.)

Subsection (5) to be retained as (1.)

Subsection (6) to be retained as (2.)

Add as follows, as subsection (3), after word “rates,” in line 29:—

(3.) All wages of any artisan, labourer, or workman, whether skilled or unskilled, in the employment of the bankrupt at piecework at the date of the order of adjudication, and not exceeding the amount earned at such piecework in the three months preceding such order.

To add to the clause—

The matters hereinafter mentioned shall, unless the Court shall order otherwise, be paid in priority of all other debts excepting the debts hereinbefore mentioned. Such matters between themselves shall rank equally, and shall be paid in full unless the property of the bankrupt is insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions between themselves.

- (1.) The costs and expenses incurred by a creditor in issuing the execution whereon the debtor was adjudged bankrupt:
- (2.) The costs and expenses incurred by a debtor in filing his petition, and other matters consequent thereon:
- (3.) All rates and taxes due from the bankrupt at the date of the order of adjudication, and having become due and payable within six months next before that date:
- (4.) Any sum ordered by the Court to be paid out of the bankrupt's estate to or for the use of an apprentice, under section one hundred and forty of this Act.

FISHERIES BILL.

Mr. FERGUS, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

26. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained the Governor in Council may from time to time appoint any local authority to have and exercise a special control over the fishing in any lake or other still waters, and may make regulations whereby such authority may sanction the use of nets at any time and at all times by any person or persons, on payment of a fee, for the destruction of any voracious fish in such lake or still waters.

And the Governor in Council may from time to time alter or revoke any such appointments or regulations respectively.

CHATELS SECURITIES ACT 1880 AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. SWANSON, in Committee, to move the following new clause:—

No person carrying on any business or trade shall, while carrying on such business or trade, give any bill of sale, lien, or security to any person whomsoever over any part of the stock-in-trade in which the person carrying on such business or trade deals in the way of his business or trade.
