

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, the 8th Day of October, 1896.

ADULTERATION PREVENTION ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

Hon. Mr. HALL-JONES, in Committee, to move new clause to follow clause 6.

6A. For the purposes of preventing the sale of adulterated liquor, and of otherwise giving effect to section thirty-six of "The Alcoholic Liquors Sale Control Amendment Act, 1895," every special Inspector appointed under that section shall be deemed to be an Inspector and also an Analyst under "The Adulteration Prevention Act, 1880," and shall possess and combine in his own person all the powers and functions by that Act conferred upon either an Inspector or an Analyst; and accordingly, wherever in that Act an Inspector is directed to do one thing and an Analyst another the special Inspector may himself do both.
