BANKS INDEMNITY (EXCHANGE) BILL.

AMENDMENT proposed by His Excellency the Governor-General:—

Clause 4: To omit all words after the word "London" in the fourth line, and substitute the following words: "at a rate based on the fixed exchange rate in excess of the amount of exchange on London sold by it on or after the twentieth day of January, nineteen hundred and thirty-three, the Bank of New Zealand, on the application of such bank, shall, as the agent of the Government, purchase the whole or any portion of the excess".
