

Supplementary Order Paper.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Friday, the 24th Day of April, 1936.

EMPLOYMENT PROMOTION BILL.

AMENDMENTS proposed by His Excellency the Governor-General:—

Clause 19: To add to this clause the following subclause:—

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, the total charge imposed in any year on income other than salary or wages received during the preceding year by any person to whom the foregoing provisions of this section apply shall not exceed the amount by which the income in respect of which the charge is imposed exceeded one hundred and four pounds.

Clause 21, subclause (2): To omit from this subclause the words “not be liable for any instalment of the charge that becomes due after the date of his ceasing to be so resident” in lines 23 to 25, and substituting the words “be liable for all instalments that would become payable in respect of such income derived by him up to the date of his so ceasing to be resident in New Zealand, computed at the then current rate, and all such instalments not theretofore due shall become due and payable on the day preceding the date on which he so ceases to be resident in New Zealand, and may be recovered accordingly.”

Clause 21, subclause (3): To omit from this subclause the words “not be liable for any instalment of the charge that becomes due after the date of his death” in lines 28 to 30, and substituting the words “be liable for every instalment of the charge then due and for every instalment that may thereafter become due in respect of income derived by him for any period before the date of his death.”
