Proposed Amendments

Hon. Mr MULDOON, in Committee, to move the following amendments:

Clause 3: To add to paragraph (b) of subclause (2) the words “, whether before or after the passing of this Act”.

New clause 7: To add the following clause:

7. EXPLANATORY NOTE

Clause 3: This amendment is intended to make it clear that money received by the New Zealand Red Cross Society Incorporated or The Priory in New Zealand of the Most Venerable Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, which under subclause (2) (b) may be expended for the relief of distress in the event of any natural disaster or civilian war-damage occurring within New Zealand, may be so expended whether it occurred before or after the passing of the Bill.

Clause 7 authorises local authorities and public bodies to expend money in connection with the Captain James Cook Bicentenary Celebrations to be held in the years 1969 and 1970. The clause validates such expenditure already incurred.
