

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

---

Thursday, the 30th day of June, 1881.

HARBORS ACT 1878 AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. THOMSON, in Committee, to move the addition of the following new clause:—

The first paragraph of section three of "The Harbours Act, 1878," (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act,") is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:—

Except as hereinafter provided, the several Acts and Ordinances set forth in the First Schedule hereto shall, immediately on this Act coming into operation, be repealed to the extent in the said Schedule mentioned.

This provision shall operate from the commencement of the said Act, as if it had originally been inserted therein.

LICENSING BILL.

Mr. DE LAUTOUR, in Committee, to move the addition of the following new clauses:—

(a.) It shall not be lawful for any person whomsoever either to sell, or to supply, or to give, any wine or any fermented liquor, or mixed liquor part whereof is fermented, in any quantity respectively which shall produce intoxication, to any person of the Native race within any Native Licensing District.

(b.) If any person shall sell, supply, or give any such spirituous liquor, wine, or fermented liquor to any Native, contrary to the provisions of this Act, he shall forfeit and pay for any such offence any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, to be recovered in a summary way, over and above any penalty which may be incurred for the sale of any such liquor without a license: Provided always that no penalty shall be recoverable for supplying spirituous liquor to any person of the Native race, in case it shall be satisfactorily proved that the spirituous liquor so supplied was administered medicinally.

(c.) The Governor, on the application of the owners of any block or area of Native land on which no publican's license has been hitherto granted, may, by Proclamation in the Gazette, declare that no license shall be granted within such block or area, and it shall not be lawful for the Licensing Committee to issue any license to take effect within any block or area so proclaimed.
