HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, the 4th Day of November, 1920.

HOUSING AMENDMENT BILL.

AMENDMENTS proposed by His Excellency the Governor-General:—

Clause 8: To insert, in paragraph (a) after the word "lighting," the word "heating"; to insert, after the words "of any buildings" in the same paragraph, the words "purchased or"; and to insert, before the word "supply" wherever it occurs in paragraph (b), the word "manufacture."

Clause 12: To insert, after the words "to which the application for an advance relates" in the proviso to subclause two, the words "(inclusive of the estimated value of improvements)"; and to add, after the words "an approved scheme" at the end of the proviso, the words "(inclusive of the estimated value of improvements)."

Clause 15, subclause (1): To insert, after the word "dwellinghouse" at the end of the subclause, the words "as at the third day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen."

Clause 19, subclause (2): To insert, after the word "subtenant" in the second line of the proviso, the words "or by an Inspector of Factories on behalf of the tenant or subtenant."

To add the following new clauses:—

Superintendent
may recover
unpaid
instalments. 9A. All unpaid instalments of principal and interest, and any other moneys due in respect of a worker's dwelling under the principal Act, may be recovered in any Court of competent jurisdiction by the Superintendent or by any other person authorized in that behalf by the Superintendent.

Harbour Boards
may borrow moneys for acquisition of land and erection
of workers'
dwellings. 13A. (1.) For the purposes of the acquisition of land and the erection of dwellings pursuant to the provisions of Part IV of the principal Act, any Harbour Board may, with the consent of the Minister of Marine, and without taking a poll of any ratepayers, borrow moneys under this section.

(2.) Any moneys borrowed under this section may be secured on debentures charged on the revenues and endowments of the Harbour Board, and may also be secured by a first or other mortgage of the interest of the Board in the land on which any such dwellings may be erected.

(3.) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Part III of the Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1913, it shall be lawful for the State Advances Superintendent to advance moneys to any Harbour Board for the purposes aforesaid, on the security authorized by this section, and without requiring the security of a special rate in accordance with section sixty-five of the last-mentioned Act.
