

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, the 2nd Day of October, 1901.

LICENSING BILL.

Mr. MEREDITH, in Committee, to move the following new clauses :—

Penalty on person
found on premises
during closing-hours.

If during any period during which any premises are required under the provisions of this Act to be closed any person is found on such premises, he shall, unless he satisfies the Court that he was an inmate, servant, or a lodger on such premises, or a bonâ fide traveller, or that otherwise his presence on such premises was not in contravention of the provisions of this Act with respect to the closing of licensed premises, be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Any constable may demand the name and address of any person found on any premises during the period during which they are required by the provisions of this Act to be closed, and, if he has reasonable ground to suppose that the name or address given is false, may require evidence of the correctness of such name and address, and may, if such person fail upon such demand to give his name or address or such evidence, apprehend him without warrant, and carry him as soon as practicable before a Justice of the Peace.

Any person required by a constable under this section to give his name and address who fails to give the same or gives a false name or address, or gives false evidence with respect to such name and address, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Every person who by falsely representing himself to be a traveller or a lodger buys or obtains, or attempts to buy or obtain, at any premises any intoxicating liquor during the period during which such premises are closed in pursuance of this Act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

[NOTE.—This is an extract from “The Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1872,” clause 25, Imperial statutes.]
