

SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER PAPER

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Tuesday, the 24th Day of July, 1894.

ELECTORAL ACTS AMENDMENT BILL.

Mr. MILLAR, in Committee, to move the following amendments:—

In subsection (5) of clause 3, to strike out all the words after the word "travellers" to the end of subsection.

And to add the following new clause to the Bill:—

4A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section sixty-one of the principal Act, any seaman, commercial traveller, or shearer who is enrolled as an elector under the said Act may, at any time from the date of his application for registration as an elector, until within ten clear days of the day appointed in the writ for the poll to be taken, appear personally before the Registrar of any electoral district wherein he may be for the time, and in his presence may make and sign an application and declaration for an elector's right in the form or to the effect of Form A in the Eighth Schedule to the said Act; and the said Registrar shall issue such elector's right, and transmit such claim to the Registrar of the district in which the applicant is enrolled.

LAND FOR SETTLEMENT BILL.

Captain RUSSELL, in Committee, to move:—

Clause 6. Before subsection (3)—

Where an owner of land has children born in lawful wedlock, the areas limited by subsections one and two hereof shall be increased as follows: that is to say, of first-class land, an additional area of five hundred acres for each such child; of second-class land, an additional area of one thousand acres for each such child; and of pastoral land, an additional area of two thousand acres for each such child;

- (4.) When an owner of land is married and has a husband or wife still living, an additional area for at least four children, as prescribed by the last-preceding subsection, shall be allowed, although there shall not be or have been four children born of such marriage;
- (5.) When two or more persons, not being incorporated under "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1882," are carrying on business as farmers in partnership or co-ownership, each person so carrying on business shall be allowed the same limitations and conditions as prescribed for each person in subsections one and two hereof.
