Tuesday, the 20th day of December, 1887.

NATIVE LAND COURT AMENDMENT BILL.

Hon. Mr. MITCHELSON to move, in Committee, as a new clause to follow clause 10:—

The lands known respectively as Waipiro and Porangahau and Mangamaire shall, notwithstanding any past action or procedure by or in the Native Land Court, be deemed to have remained and now to be Native land within the meaning of "The Native Land Court Act, 1886," and shall as such Native land be subject to the jurisdiction of the said Court.
