1	Title	4	Eradication actions defined
2	Commencement	5	Continuation of exemption
3	Expiry

Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the Biosecurity (Resource Management Act Exemption) Regulations 2002.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on the date of their notification in the Gazette.

3 Expiry

These regulations, unless sooner revoked, continue in force until the close of the day 2 years after they come into force and then expire.

4 Eradication actions defined

In these regulations, eradication actions means actions taken in accordance with Part VI of the Biosecurity Act 1993 in an attempt to eradicate painted apple moth (Teia anartoides).

5 Continuation of exemption

The exemption that was granted by the Minister for Biosecurity on 18 December 2001 and that exempted eradication actions from the provisions of Part III of the Resource Management Act 1991 is continued.

Marie Shroff,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on the date of their notification in the Gazette, relate to actions taken under Part VI of the Biosecurity Act 1993 in an attempt to eradicate the painted apple moth. Those actions are currently exempted from the provisions of Part III of the Resource Management Act 1991 under an exemption granted by the Minister for Biosecurity under section 7A(1) of the Biosecurity Act 1993. These regulations continue the exemption.

These regulations will, unless sooner revoked, continue in force until the close of the day 2 years after they come into force.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 31 January 2002.

These regulations are administered in the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry.
