Order

1 Title

This order is the Civil Aviation (Aeronautical Information Service) Levies Order 2001.

2 Commencement

This order comes into force on 18 October 2001.

3 Interpretation

In this order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Act means the Civil Aviation Act 1990

Airways means the Airways Corporation of New Zealand Limited

AIS means aeronautical information service

MetService means the person designated under section 3 of the Meteorological Services Act 1990 to provide the authorised meteorological warning service in New Zealand.

4 Airways, MetService, and aerodromes must pay annual AIS levy to Authority

(1) Airways must pay to the Authority an annual AIS levy of $281,300.

(2) MetService must pay to the Authority an annual AIS levy of $3,300.

(3) The operator of each aerodrome listed in the Schedule must pay to the Authority the annual AIS levy specified in the Schedule for that aerodrome.

(4) The annual AIS levies payable under subclauses (1) to (3)—

(a) must be paid to the Authority; and

(b) are payable in arrears each year on or before 30 June for the financial year beginning on 1 July and ending on 30 June.

5 Proportional levy for initial financial year

Despite clause 4, the amount of the annual AIS levies payable on or before 30 June 2002 for the financial year 31 July 2001 to 30 June 2002 must be determined by the following formula:

$$a \times \left(\frac{b}{365}\right) = c$$ where—

a is the applicable levy payable under clause 4

b is the number of days from the date that the applicable levy comes into force until 30 June 2002

c is the amount payable on or before 30 June 2002 for the financial year beginning 31 July 2001 and ending 30 June 2002.

6 Forms

The Authority may provide forms to be used in relation to the payment of any AIS levy.

7 Levies exclusive of GST

The AIS levies specified in clause 4(1) and (2) and in the Schedule are exclusive of goods and services tax.
