THE CUSTOMS IMPORT PROHIBITION (NEW ZEALAND
MONEY) ORDER 1966

BERNARD FERGUSSON, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 15th day of June 1966

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to section 46 of the Customs Act 1913, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and being of opinion that the prohibition hereinafter enacted is necessary in the public interest, hereby makes the following order.

ORDER

1. (1) This order may be cited as the Customs Import Prohibition (New Zealand Money) Order 1966.

(2) This order shall come into force on the day after the date of its notification in the Gazette.

2. The importation of the goods specified in the Schedule hereto is prohibited, except with the consent of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit to impose:

Provided that this prohibition shall not apply to the bringing into New Zealand by travellers of New Zealand money (being notes in denominations of 10s. or £1 or coin of any denomination) not exceeding £5, of which not more than £2 may be in coin.

SCHEDULE

PROHIBITED IMPORTS

New Zealand money, being bank notes and other currency, postal notes, and money orders of New Zealand, and including promissory notes and bills of exchange; but excluding travellers' cheques.

T. J. SHERRARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.
Date of notification in Gazette: Supplement 16 June 1966.
This order is administered in the Customs Department.
