

THE COOL STORE CONTROL ORDER 1945

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the Primary Industries Emergency Regulations 1939, the Primary Industries Controller hereby makes the following Order.

ORDER

1. This Order may be cited as the Cool Store Control Order 1945, and shall come into force on the seventh day after the notification hereof in the Gazette.

2. The notice dated the 30th day of June, 1943, and published in the Gazette of the 12th day of August, 1943, respecting the cool-storage of fruit is hereby revoked.

3. This Order shall apply to all premises which at any time within twelve months prior to the coming into force of this Order have been wholly or partly used as a cool store for the storage of fruit or vegetables.

4. No owner or occupier of any premises to which this Order applies shall use the premises otherwise than as a cool store for the storage of primary products.

5. No owner or occupier of any premises to which this Order applies shall store or undertake the storage in the premises of any primary product, not being fruit stored on behalf of the Internal Marketing Division of the Marketing Department, except with the prior written consent of the Primary Industries Controller or of the person hereinafter mentioned to whom he has delegated his authority in that behalf.

6. Every application for consent to store fruit in any premises to which this Order applies shall be made to the Director of the Internal Marketing Division of the Marketing Department or other person authorized by the Director in that behalf (as delegate of the Primary Industries Controller).

7. Every application for consent to store any primary product other than fruit in any premises to which this Order applies shall be made to the Refrigeration Supervisor, Department of Agriculture, Wellington, or other person authorized by the Refrigeration Supervisor in that behalf (as delegate of the Primary Industries Controller).

Dated at Wellington, this 16th day of March, 1945.

E. J. FAWCETT,
Primary Industries Controller.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act, 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 22nd day of March, 1945.

These regulations are administered in the Department of Agriculture.
