THE ECONOMIC STABILIZATION EMERGENCY REGULATIONS
1942, AMENDMENT NO. 5

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 13th day of February, 1945

Present :

THE RIGHT HON. P. FRASER PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Emergency Regulations Act, 1939, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Economic Stabilization Emergency Regulations 1942, Amendment No. 5, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Economic Stabilization Emergency Regulations 1942* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. Regulation 35 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by adding to subclause (1) the following paragraph :—

“(e) That an increase in the rate of remuneration is necessary to restore or preserve a proper relationship with the rates of remuneration of other workers or classes of workers and with any standard rates that may for the time being be specified in any pronouncement made by the Court of Arbitration for the purposes of these regulations.”

3. Regulation 38 of the principal regulations (as set out in Regulation 5 of the Economic Stabilization Emergency Regulations 1942, Amendment No. 4) is hereby amended by inserting in subclause (1), after the words “general purpose of these regulations”, the words “and also to the desirability of so fixing rates of remuneration as to restore or preserve a proper relationship with the rates of remuneration of other workers or classes of workers (whether fixed by any award, apprenticeship order, or industrial agreement or otherwise)”.

4. Regulation 39 of the principal regulations (as set out in Regulation 6 of the Economic Stabilization Emergency Regulations 1942, Amendment No. 4) is hereby amended by inserting in subclause (3), after the words "general purpose of these regulations", the words "and also to the desirability of so fixing rates of remuneration as to restore or preserve a proper relationship with the rates of remuneration of other workers or classes of workers (whether fixed by any award, apprenticeship order, or industrial agreement or otherwise)".

5. The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after Regulation 39, the following regulations:—

"39A. (1) Upon application made by any party to any award or industrial agreement that is in force on the commencement of this regulation, the Court may amend the provisions of the award or industrial agreement relating to rates of remuneration in such manner as the Court thinks fit for the purpose of restoring or preserving a proper relationship with the rates of remuneration of other workers or classes of workers (whether fixed by any award, apprenticeship order, or industrial agreement or otherwise).

"(2) In making any such amendment the Court may, if in its discretion it thinks fit, direct that the amendment shall have effect as from such date before the date on which it is made as the Court thinks fit.

"(3) The powers conferred on the Court by this regulation in respect of awards and industrial agreements may, on application made in that behalf, be exercised by the Court in respect of any apprenticeship order that is in force on the commencement of this regulation. Any amendment made by the Court under this regulation to any apprenticeship order shall, on and from the date on which it takes effect, be deemed to apply according to its tenor to all contracts of apprenticeship in force on that date and entered into subject either to the provisions of that apprenticeship order or to the provisions of an apprenticeship order that has before that date been superseded directly or indirectly by that apprenticeship order.

"39B. The Court may from time to time, of its own motion or on application made in that behalf, make a pronouncement specifying standard rates of wages for skilled, semi-skilled, and unskilled workers for the purposes of these regulations."

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act, 1936.

Subject to the general supervision of the Minister of Industries and Commerce, these regulations are administered in the office of the Director of Stabilization in the Treasury.
