Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 October 2001, amend the Fisheries (Southland and Sub-Antarctic Areas Commercial Fishing) Regulations 1986 to make them more consistent with the Fisheries Act 1996. The main features of the amendments are as follows:

- a definition of commercial fisher is substituted for the definition of commercial fisherman:

Fisheries (Southland and Sub-Antarctic Areas Commercial Fishing) Amendment
Regulations (No 3) 2001

Explanatory note

2001/271

- references to the chief executive are substituted for references to the Director-General:
 - the prohibition on targeting certain fish, aquatic life, and seaweed is omitted. This matter is now covered by the Fisheries (Commercial Fishing) Regulations 2001:
 - taking or processing kina in Southern Fiordland is prohibited:
 - the maximum penalty for the higher band of offences, which was formerly $10,000, is increased to $100,000.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 20 September 2001.

These regulations are administered in the Ministry of Fisheries.
