

THE INDUSTRIAL EFFICIENCY EMERGENCY REGULATIONS
1943, AMENDMENT NO. 1

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 6th day of June, 1945

Present :

THE HON. W. NASH PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Emergency Regulations Act, 1939, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. These regulations may be cited as the Industrial Efficiency Emergency Regulations 1943, Amendment No. 1, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Industrial Efficiency Emergency Regulations 1943* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

2. The principal regulations are hereby amended by adding the following new regulations:—

“ 6. If any person holding a license under the Act has, whether before or after the commencement of this regulation, ceased with the consent of the Bureau to carry on for the time being the industry in respect of which he holds a license, no fees shall be payable by the licensee in respect of the license until he is again carrying on the industry.

“ 7. The Bureau in considering applications for licenses or for leave to transfer licenses, and the Industrial Efficiency Appeal Authority in determining appeals, shall, in addition to all other relevant considerations, have regard to the desirability in the public interest of re-establishing in civil life discharged servicemen within the meaning of Part I of the Rehabilitation Act, 1941.

“ 8. In any case where the Bureau is of opinion that the re-establishment in civil life of discharged servicemen will be facilitated thereby, the Bureau may—

“ (a) Refuse to grant a license unless there is urgent necessity for the granting thereof; or

“ (b) Grant a temporary license under the foregoing provisions of these regulations.

* Statutory Regulations 1943, Serial number 1943/32, page 58.

“9. The Bureau may refuse to grant leave to transfer a license to any person who is not a discharged serviceman if it is satisfied that there is a discharged serviceman ready and willing to purchase at a reasonable price as a going concern the business in respect of which the license is in force.

“10. The Director of Rehabilitation, or an officer in the service of the Crown authorized by the Director in that behalf, shall be entitled to produce evidence or to make representations to the Bureau with respect to the subject-matter of any application made to the Bureau under Part III of the Act, and the Director of Rehabilitation may appeal against the decision of the Bureau on any application in respect of which evidence has been produced or representations made as aforesaid at any time within one month after the decision has been communicated to the Director. Every such appeal shall be deemed to be an appeal under section 21 of the Act.

“11. Any discharged serviceman desirous of becoming engaged in any industry may produce evidence or make representations to the Bureau with respect to any application made to the Bureau for a license, or for leave to transfer a license, in respect of that industry.”

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
