EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the rules, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These rules, which come into force on the date of their notification in the Gazette, amend rules 8 (1) and 8 (2) of the Lotto Rules 1996.

The amendment recognises a development in the gaming computer system that allows a retailer with more than 1 terminal to cancel a ticket on a terminal other than the terminal on which the ticket was issued. Currently, a ticket can be cancelled only on the issuing terminal.

The amendment means that the Lotto Rules 1996, the Bingo Rules 1996, and the Keno Rules 1994 now all provide for cancellation by the return of a ticket to the issuing retailer, rather than to the issuing terminal.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 19 November 1998.
These rules are administered in the New Zealand Lotteries Commission.
