THE POSTAL AMENDING REGULATIONS 1941.

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 6th day of August, 1941.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the power and authority vested in him by the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Postal Amending Regulations 1941.
2. These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of August, 1941.
3. All payments made in advance before the coming into force of these regulations for a period extending after the coming into force of these regulations shall be deemed apportionable, to the intent that any person having made such a payment shall, notwithstanding the terms of any receipt issued to him, be entitled after the coming into force of these regulations to the delivery of correspondence by private bag only for the further period for which the unexhausted portion of the payment will suffice at the rate hereinafter specified.
4. The regulation numbered 14 under the heading "Private Boxes and Call-boxes and Private Bags" of the regulations made on the 15th day of August, 1927, and published in the Gazette on the 18th day of the same month at page 2699, as replaced by the regulations relating to private mail-bags made on the 17th day of June, 1929, and published in the Gazette on the 20th day of the same month at page 1718, is amended by revoking subclauses (a) and (b) of clause 2 thereof, and substituting the following:—

“(a) The fee for a private bag for the delivery of correspondence which ordinarily would be delivered by postman from the office at which the bag is made up shall be as follows:—

“(i) For a bag which is collected at the post-office by the holder: £5 per annum for each closing per diem.

“(ii) For a bag which is delivered by the post-office: £5 per annum for each closing per diem, plus an additional charge to cover the salary cost involved in delivering the bag, the latter charge to be increased by 12½ per cent. to cover overhead.

“(b) The fee for a private bag for the delivery of correspondence which ordinarily would not be delivered by postman from the office at which the bag is made up shall be as follows:—

Size of Bag and Frequency of Closing.	Charges.
	For Carriage on Route of Established Mail-service unrestricted as to Quantity or Weight of Mail carried.	For Collection by Holder at Post-office.
“(i) For a bag measuring 20 in. by 36 in.—
“ If the bag is despatched or closed not more than once daily	£2 per annum ..	£1 per annum.
“ If the bag is despatched or closed more frequently than once daily	£2 per annum for each time per diem the bag is despatched	£1 per annum for each time per diem the bag is despatched.
“(ii) For a bag measuring 24 in. by 45 in.—
“ If the bag is despatched or closed not more than once daily	£3 per annum ..	£1 10s. per annum.
“ If the bag is despatched or closed more frequently than once daily	£3 per annum for each time per diem the bag is despatched	£1 10s. per annum for each time per diem the bag is despatched.

“The bag shall be made up at the post-office most conveniently situated for serving the bagholder, unless there are circumstances which, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, justify the making-up of the bag at some other office.”

T. R. AICKIN,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act, 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 7th day of August, 1941.

These regulations are administered in the Post and Telegraph Department.
