Form 16

Extended supervision order

Section 107I, Parole Act 2002

Case number:

To the Chief Executive of the Department of Corrections and [full name of offender to whom order relates]:

On [date], the *High Court/*District Court at [place] made an extended supervision order against [full name of offender] under section 107I of the Parole Act 2002.

*Delete if inapplicable.

The term of the order is: [specify]

*The order comes into force on the offender's statutory release date (in the case of an offender who is detained or liable to be recalled).

*The order comes into force on [date].

*Delete if inapplicable.

The standard extended supervision conditions set out in section 107JA of the Parole Act 2002 (which are also set out on this form) apply to the offender from the time the order comes into force and throughout the term of the order except—

- during any period when any conditions are suspended by the Parole Board under section 107K(3)(c) of the Parole Act 2002; or
- during any period when the conditions are suspended under section 107P of the Parole Act 2002; or
- as varied by the Parole Board.

*The court has imposed the following special conditions on the offender under section 107IA of the Parole Act 2002: [state conditions].

*These special conditions continue in force—

- (a) until the date that is 3 months from the date this order comes into force; or

Form 16—continued

- (b) if an application is made to the Parole Board seeking the imposition of special conditions under section 107K of the Parole Act 2002 within that 3-month period, until the Board—
  - (i) imposes 1 or more special conditions under section 107K of that Act; or
  - (ii) imposes any other special condition that it is entitled to impose under section 15 of that Act; or
  - (iii) declines to impose any special conditions.

*Delete if inapplicable.

The Parole Board may also impose special conditions on the offender.

Dated at the [specify] Court at [place] on [date].

(Deputy) Registrar

Standard conditions of extended supervision order

The offender is subject to the following conditions:

- (a) the offender must report in person to a probation officer in the probation area in which the offender resides as soon as practicable, and not later than 72 hours, after the commencement of the extended supervision order:
- (b) the offender must report to a probation officer as and when required to do so by a probation officer, and must notify the probation officer of his or her residential address and the nature and place of his or her employment when asked to do so:
- (c) the offender must obtain the prior written consent of a probation officer before moving to a new residential address:
- (d) if consent is given under paragraph (c) and the offender is moving to a new probation area, the offender must report in person to a probation officer in the new probation area in which the offender is to reside as soon as practicable, and not later than 72 hours, after the offender’s arrival in the new area:
- (e) the offender must not reside at any address at which a probation officer has directed the offender not to reside:

- (f) the offender must obtain the prior written consent of a probation officer before changing his or her employment:
- (g) the offender must not engage, or continue to engage, in any employment or occupation in which a probation officer has directed the offender not to engage or continue to engage:
- (h) the offender must take part in a rehabilitative and reintegration needs assessment if and when directed to do so by a probation officer:
- (i) the offender must not associate with, or contact (including communicating, or attempting to communicate, by any means, such as by telephone or via the internet), a person under the age of 16 years, except in the presence and under the supervision of an adult who—
  - (i) has been informed about the relevant offending:
  - (ii) has been approved in writing by a probation officer as suitable to undertake the role of supervision:
- (j) the offender must not associate with, or contact (including communicating, or attempting to communicate, by any means, such as by telephone or via the internet), a victim of the offender without the prior written approval of a probation officer:
- (k) the offender must not associate with, or contact (including communicating, or attempting to communicate, by any means, such as by telephone or via the internet), any person or class of person specified in a written direction given to the offender for the purposes of this paragraph.

Martin Bell,
for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 October 2007, amend the Parole Regulations 2002. The amendments reflect certain changes that are to be made to the Parole Act 2002 by the Parole Amendment Act 2007. Those changes, which also come into force on 1 October 2007, relate to—

- the new special condition of residential restrictions; and
  - home detention no longer being a way in which a person may serve a sentence of imprisonment; and
  - changes to the conditions imposed on persons subject to extended supervision orders.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.

Date of notification in Gazette: 30 August 2007.

These regulations are administered by the Department of Corrections and the Ministry of Justice.
