EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

The Private Broadcasting Stations (Ownership) Regulations 1969 provide that no person or body corporate may have a prescribed interest in more than 1 warrant for a medium frequency private broadcasting station. Also, except with the approval of the Broadcasting Authority, no person may act as a director of more than 2 companies having a prescribed interest in more than 2 warrants for such stations.

These regulations amend the 1969 regulations by omitting the term "medium-frequency" wherever it appears. The effect is that the restrictions imposed by the principal regulations will now extend to all classes of private broadcasting and television stations, and so preclude (inter alia) the holding of prescribed interests in more than 1 warrant for any private station.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 4 May 1972.

These regulations are administered in the New Zealand Broadcasting Authority.
