EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations continue the Price Freeze Regulations 1984 in force until the close of 8 November 1984. Those regulations were to have expired with the close of 18 October 1984.

Regulation 5 provides that certain transactions and activities which take place during the period of the price freeze but which relate to the disposal of goods or the supply of services after 8 November 1984 will not contravene the principal regulations.
