REGULATIONS

1. Title and commencement—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 24, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Police Regulations 1959* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of May 1985.

2. Duties of District Commander—Regulation 8 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting from subclause (1), and also from subclause (3), the expression “Officer in Charge of a district”, and substituting in each case the expression “District Commander”.

3. Commandant of Police College—(1) The principal regulations are hereby amended by revoking regulation 8A (as inserted by regulation 2 (1) of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 4), and substituting the following regulation:

“8A. (1) The Commandant of the Police College shall, subject to the control of the Commissioner, have the control of the Police College and the control and direction of all members stationed at or attending the Police College, in accordance with the Act, these regulations, and general instructions, and shall in addition, perform any other duties specified by the Commissioner.

“(2) For the purposes of his duties, the Commandant of the Police College shall have and may exercise all the powers, duties, and functions of a District Commander; and any reference in these regulations to the District Commander shall, where appropriate, be deemed to include the Commandant of the Police College.”

(2) Regulation 2 (1) of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 4 is hereby revoked.

4. Commissioned officers not in charge of districts—Regulation 9 of the principal regulations is hereby amended—

(a) By omitting the expression “Officer in Charge of the district”, and substituting the expression “District Commander”;

(b) By omitting the expression “Officer in Charge” where it secondly occurs, and substituting the expression “District Commander”.

5. Non-commissioned officers—Regulation 10(3) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting the expression “Officer in Charge of the district”, and substituting the expression “District Commander”.

6. Candidates for appointment—(1) Regulation 14 is hereby amended by revoking subclause (2), and substituting the following subclause:

“(2) Candidates for permanent appointment as constables shall—

“(a) Comply with such standards of medical and physical health as may be prescribed by the Commissioner in general instructions; and

“(b) Be not less than 19 and under 35 years of age; and

“(c) Conform to such educational standards as may be fixed from time to time by the Commissioner.”

(2) Regulation 3 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 18 is hereby revoked.

7. Re-appointment after absence due to child care—The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting in Part II, after regulation 14, the following regulation:

“14A. (1) A member who resigns from the Police in order to care for his or her pre-school child may subsequently apply for re-appointment to the Police and, if the member does so and satisfies the conditions specified in subclause (2) of this regulation, that member shall be entitled to be appointed to the Police in preference to any other applicant.

“(2) The conditions to be met by an applicant for re-appointment under this regulation are as follows:

“(a) The total period of absence from service with the Police shall not exceed 4 years (exclusive, in the case of a female member, of any period of absence on maternity leave):

“(b) The applicant shall—

“(i) Produce the birth certificate of the pre-school child concerned; and

“(ii) Sign a statutory declaration to the effect that the absence from service with the Police has been for the purpose of caring for a pre-school child, and that paid employment has not been entered into or other income received during the period of that absence, or giving details of any such employment or other income, as the case may require:

“(c) The applicant shall meet the standards required for appointment to the Police:

“(d) Such other conditions as the Commissioner may prescribe in general instructions.”

8. General provisions relating to promotion—(1) Regulation 15 (1) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by revoking paragraph (c), and substituting the following paragraph:

“(c) The ability to comply with such standards of medical and physical health as may be prescribed by the Commissioner in general instructions, and a readiness to serve in any part of New Zealand:”.

(2) Regulation 15 (4) of the principal regulations is hereby revoked.

(3) Regulation 15 of the principal regulations is hereby further amended by revoking subclause (6) (as substituted by regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 13), and substituting the following subclause:

“(6) No member shall be promoted to the rank of sergeant unless, on the date of the recommendation of the Promotion Board, that member has had at least 5 years’ continuous service otherwise than as a cadet, and is able to comply with such standards of medical and physical health as may be prescribed by the Commissioner in general instructions.”

(4) The following regulations are hereby revoked:

- (a) Regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 13:
- (b) Regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 15.

9. Personal reports—(1) Regulation 19 of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 5 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 9) is hereby amended by omitting from subclause (1) the words “below the rank of Chief Inspector”.

(2) Regulation 19 of the principal regulations (as so substituted) is hereby further amended by omitting from subclause (3) the words “, after the reports have been correlated,”.

29. Annual leave—(1) Regulation 76 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by revoking subclause (1), and substituting the following subclauses:

“(1) Subject to subclauses (1A) and (1B) of this regulation, a member shall be allowed annual leave at the rate of 33 days a year, exclusive of the weekly days off accruing during that period.

“(1A) No annual leave shall accrue during any period when a member—

“(a) Is on leave without pay, anticipated retiring leave, maternity leave, paternity leave, or adoption leave; or

“(b) Is suspended from duty if, at the expiration of that suspension, the member does not return to duty in the Police; or

“(c) Is on retiring leave, resigning leave, or any other period of final leave, if, at the expiration of that leave, the member does not return to duty in the Police.

“(1B) Where a member is absent from duty on account of leave without pay in excess of 38 days (inclusive of any weekly days off that would have accrued during that period) in one or more periods in any year, the period of annual leave allowed to that member shall, unless the Commissioner otherwise directs, be reduced by 1 day for each 11 days (inclusive of any weekly days off that would have accrued during that period) of the total period of absence on account of leave without pay.”

(2) Regulation 76 (3) of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 11 (1) of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 7) is hereby amended—

(a) By omitting the expression “Officers in Charge of districts”, and substituting the expression “District Commanders”;

(b) By omitting the expression “Officer in Charge of a district”, and substituting the expression “District Commander”.

(3) Regulation 76 (4) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting the expression “Officers in Charge of districts”, and substituting the expression “District Commanders”.

(4) Regulation 76 (5) of the principal regulations (as amended by regulation 11 (2) of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 7) is hereby amended by omitting the expression “Officer in Charge of a district”, in both places where it occurs, and substituting in each case the expression “District Commander”.

(5) The following regulations are hereby revoked:

(a) Regulation 11 (2) of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 7;

(b) Regulation 4 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 11;

(c) Regulation 11 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 15;

(d) Regulation 10 (1) of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 18.

30. Long service leave—Regulation 76A of the principal regulations (as inserted by regulation 11 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 18) is hereby amended by revoking subclause (6), and substituting the following subclause:

“(6) If a member dies after qualifying for long service leave but before the member has taken or forfeited the leave in accordance with this regulation, a cash grant equivalent in value to the salary that would otherwise have been paid to the member in respect of long service leave shall be paid to the member’s widow or widower, or, if the member left no widow or widower, to any dependent child or children of the member.”

31. Shift work leave—The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 76A (as inserted by regulation 11 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 18), the following regulation:

“76B. Shift work leave shall be granted by the Commissioner to compensate members who are required to work rostered shifts, subject to such conditions as he thinks fit. Such conditions may be determined in a particular case, or may be prescribed generally in general instructions.”

32. Maternity leave—(1) Regulation 77A of the principal regulations (as inserted by regulation 13 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 18) is hereby amended by revoking subclause (1), and substituting the following subclause:

“(1) Maternity leave without pay may be granted by the Commissioner to any female member who becomes pregnant. In the case of a member with at least 12 months’ service, the maximum period of such leave shall be 12 months. In the case of a member with less than 12 months’ service, the maximum period of leave shall be 6 months.”

(2) Regulation 77A of the principal regulations (as so inserted) is hereby further amended by adding to subclause (3) the words “, up to a maximum of 6 months”.

(3) Regulation 77A of the principal regulations (as so inserted) is hereby further amended by adding the following subclauses:

“(4) The Commissioner may direct a member to commence her maternity leave on a date earlier than that proposed by the member if the Commissioner is satisfied that, because of her condition, the member is no longer able to perform her duties adequately or in a manner that is consonant with her own safety and the safety of others, and there are no other suitable duties to which she could be assigned in the meantime.

“(5) Where a female member produces a medical certificate to the effect that she is pregnant, she may be granted by the Commissioner, during any period when she would otherwise be on duty, special leave without pay for any reason connected with her pregnancy, up to a maximum in the aggregate of 10 days.”

33. Adoption leave—The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 77A (as inserted by regulation 13 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 18), the following regulation:

“77B. (1) Adoption leave without pay may be granted by the Commissioner to any member who adopts a child who is under the age of 12 months. In the case of a member with at least 12 months’ service, the maximum period of such leave shall be 12 months. In the case of a member with less than 12 months’ service, the maximum period of such leave shall be 6 months.

“(2) A member who intends to adopt such a child shall give notice of his or her intention to the Commissioner immediately following advice from the Department of Social Welfare to the adoptive applicants that they are considered suitable adoptive parents.

“(3) An application for adoption leave shall be accompanied by sufficient evidence of an approved adoption placement.

“(4) A member who resumes duty after a period of 12 months’ absence on adoption leave and who then completes a period of 6 months’ service may be granted by the Commissioner payment of a sum equivalent to 30 working days’ salary of the member at the rate applying for the 30 working days immediately before the cessation of duty by the member to begin adoption leave. A member who completes 6 months’ service after a period of less than 12 months’ absence on adoption leave may receive a similar payment, but the sum paid shall be reduced proportionately.

“(5) Where both the adoptive parents are members of the Police, they may both be granted leave without pay under subclause (1) of this regulation and a cash payment under subclause (4) of this regulation, but so that the aggregate period of leave granted to them does not exceed 12 months. In such a case, the amount of leave to be taken by each of the members shall be as agreed between the members.”

34. Paternity leave—The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 77B (as inserted by regulation 33 of these regulations), the following regulation:

“77C. Paternity leave without pay for a period not exceeding 14 days may be granted by the Commissioner to a male member whose child is about to be or has just been born.”

35. Bereavement leave—Regulation 78 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by inserting, after the word “mother,” the words “stepfather, stepmother,”.

36. Retiring leave on medical, physical, or psychological grounds—Regulation 79A of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 12) is hereby amended by adding to paragraph (c) of subclause (1) the word “; or”, and by adding to that subclause the following paragraph:

“(d) The member leaves the Police through compulsory disengagement under section 28C of the Act or through voluntary disengagement under section 28D of the Act.”

37. Cash grant in lieu of retiring leave—Regulation 79B of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 12) is hereby amended by revoking subclause (2), and substituting the following subclause:

“(2) Where a member dies, the Commissioner may approve the payment of a sum equivalent in value to the leave that would have been granted to the deceased member had the member retired under regulation 79 of these regulations on the date of the member’s death to the member’s widow or widower, or, if the member left no widow or widower, to any dependent child or children of the member. If the member left no widow or widower and no dependent child, the sum shall be paid into the member’s estate.”

38. Calculation of service for retiring leave—Regulation 79C of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 12) is hereby amended by adding, as subclause (2), the following subclause:

“(2) For the purpose of calculating the length of service of any member, the actual period of service of the member with the Police shall be increased,—

“(a) In the case of a person who was a member of the Police immediately before the 1st day of May 1985, by 33½ percent; or

“(b) In any other case, by 25 percent.”

39. Leave in anticipation of retiring leave—Regulation 79D of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 12) is hereby amended by omitting from subclause (3) the expression “one month”, and substituting the expression “20 working days”.

40. Resigning leave—(1) Regulation 79E of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 12) is hereby amended by omitting from subclause (1) the expression “60”, and substituting the expression “55”.

(2) Regulation 79E of the principal regulations (as so substituted) is hereby further amended by omitting from subclause (2) the words “60 years of age”, and substituting the words “55 years of age, on a basis proportionate to the scale set out in the Sixth Schedule to these regulations”.

41. Women resigning to be married or after having married—Regulation 79F of the principal regulations (as substituted by regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 12) is hereby revoked.

42. Special retirement incentive—(1) The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 79G (as substituted by regulation 2 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 12), the following regulation:

“79H. (1) Every member who, immediately before the 1st day of May 1985, had attained the age of 41 years but had not attained the age of 55 years, shall, if that member retires within 12 months after attaining the age of 55 years, be entitled as of right to the special retirement incentive prescribed in the table set out in the Seventh Schedule to these regulations, in addition to the retiring leave to which the member will be entitled under regulation 79 of these regulations.

“(2) Subject to subclause (3) of this regulation, every member who, immediately before the 1st day of May 1985, had attained the age of 55 years shall, if that member retires within 12 months after that date, be entitled as of right to the special retirement incentive prescribed in the table set out in the Seventh Schedule to these regulations, in addition to the retiring leave to which the member will be entitled under regulation 79 of these regulations.

“(3) A member who immediately before the 1st day of May 1985, had attained the age of 59 years shall not be entitled to the special retirement incentive unless the date on which the member retires is at least 6 months before the date on which the member would be obliged to retire by virtue of section 27 of the Act.”

(2) The principal regulations are hereby amended by adding, after the Sixth Schedule (as added by regulation 4 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 12), the Seventh Schedule set out in the Schedule to these regulations.

43. Sickness—(1) Regulation 81 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting from the proviso to subclause (1), and from the proviso to subclause (6), and from the proviso to subclause (7), the expression “Officer in Charge of the district”, and substituting in each case the expression “District Commander”.

(2) Regulation 81 (3) of the principal regulations is hereby revoked.

(3) Regulation 81 (9) of the principal regulations is hereby revoked.

44. Pay during sickness—Regulation 82 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by inserting, after subclause (1A) (as inserted by regulation 12 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 15), the following subclause:

“(1B) Where—

“(a) A member is unfit for duty as a result of personal injury by accident arising otherwise than in the execution of duty; and

“(b) The member is entitled, in accordance with the Accident Compensation Act 1982, to earnings related compensation; and

“(c) The period during which the member is entitled to full pay in accordance with subclause (1) of this regulation has expired; and

“(d) The member is receiving half pay in accordance with that subclause; and

“(e) The Accident Compensation Corporation is reimbursing the Police, in accordance with section 59 (6) of the Accident Compensation Act 1982, any portion of the amount being paid to the member,—

the member shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the half pay, a sum equivalent to the amount being so reimbursed by the Corporation to the Police:

“Provided that the total amount to which a member shall be entitled under this subclause shall not exceed the amount to which the member would be entitled if he or she were fit for duty on full pay.”

45. Sick leave bank—The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 82, the following regulation:

“82A. (1) The Commissioner may from time to time, with the concurrence of each of the service organisations, direct that the period of annual leave to which each member is entitled under regulation 76 of these regulations shall, in respect of any year, be reduced by one-half day.

“(2) The total number of one-half days so deducted shall be credited by the Commissioner to a Sick Leave Bank.

“(3) Where any member is unfit for duty for a period in excess of that for which the member is entitled to receive full pay or half pay under regulation 82 of these regulations, the Commissioner may extend that period by such number of days as he thinks fit.

“(4) The number of days by which any such period is extended under subclause (3) of this regulation shall be debited to the Sick Leave Bank.”

46. Regulations relating to certain allowances revoked—(1) Regulation 86, regulation 87 (as substituted by regulation 13 (1) of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 7), and regulations 88 to 91 of the principal regulations are hereby revoked.

(2) The following regulations are hereby consequentially revoked:

(a) Regulation 13 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 7:

(b) Regulation 5 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 11:

(c) Regulation 2 (4) of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 20.

47. Unauthorised use of Police crest and badge—(1) The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after regulation 93A (as inserted by regulation 6 of the Police Regulations 1959, Amendment No. 11), the following regulation:

“93B. Section 51A of the principal Act shall apply to the Police crest, and to the Police badge, the design of which is depicted in the Eighth Schedule to these regulations.”

(2) The principal regulations are hereby amended by adding (after the Seventh Schedule as added by regulation 42 (3) of these regulations) the Eighth Schedule set out in the Second Schedule to these regulations.

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations are made pursuant to the Police Act 1958, and amend the Police Regulations 1959.

Regulation 1 relates to the Title and commencement. The regulations come into force on 1 May 1985.

Regulations 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 19, 20 (2), 21 (2), 22, 23, 24, 26, 28, 29 (2), 29 (3), 29 (4), and 43 reflect changes in nomenclature.

Regulations 6, 8, 18, 27, 36, 38, 40, and 42 are consequential upon the new scheme for early retirement introduced by the Police Amendment Act 1985.

Regulations 7, 29 (1), 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 37, 39, and 41 relate primarily to leave, and bring conditions relating to the Police more into line with those in the Public Service.

Regulations 9, 44, 45, and 46 bring the present regulations more into line with current administrative practice.

The remaining regulations effect miscellaneous amendments.

Regulation 11 allows a constable to include any period of service as a cadet in the period of qualifying service required for designation as a senior constable.

Regulation 17 removes the controls on the undertaking of outside employment by a member's wife.

Regulations 20 (1) and 21 extend the time allowed for certain procedural steps relating to disciplinary proceedings.

Regulation 25 removes the requirement to record against the personal record of a member certain very minor offences dealt with by way of minor offence notices or infringement notices, and the like.

Regulation 47 has the effect of prohibiting the unauthorised use by any person outside the Police of the Police crest or badge, illustrated in the Second Schedule to the regulations.

Issued under the authority of the Regulations Act 1936.

Date of notification in Gazette: 30 April 1985.

These regulations are administered in the Police Department.
