EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 August 1986, increase fees payable for various matters under the Passports Act 1980. A higher fee is to be charged in most cases if the application is made outside New Zealand. Fees, additional to those set out in the Passport Regulations 1981, are prescribed in respect of—

- (a) The renewal of a passport under regulation 4 (2) of the Passport Regulations 1981:
- (b) The urgent issue, renewal, or endorsement of any passport (other than an endorsement required by the Minister under regulation 5 of the Passport Regulations 1981) or the urgent issue of a certificate of identity outside normal office hours. This fee is payable in addition to the normal fee.

The regulations also clarify that a fee is payable for an endorsement of a passport on a change of name due to marriage or reversion to a maiden or former name.
