

THE PRIVATE SAVINGS BANKS INTEREST ORDER 1977,
AMENDMENT NO. 1

---

RICHARD WILD, Administrator of the Government

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 25th day of October 1977

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964 and the Private Savings Banks Act 1964, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order.

ORDER

1. Title and commencement—(1) This order may be cited as the Private Savings Banks Interest Order 1977, Amendment No. 1, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Private Savings Banks Interest Order 1977* (hereinafter referred to as the principal order).

(2) This order shall come into force on the day after the date of its notification in the Gazette.

2. Interest on investment accounts—Clause 4 (2) of the principal order is hereby amended by adding the following proviso:

“Provided that, in respect of money in an investment account which is closed owing to the death of the depositor, the rate of interest payable may be the rate applicable to the full term of the account.”

P. G. MILLEN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

This order provides for deposits in an investment account made before 29 July 1977 to receive interest at the rate applicable to the full term of the deposit where the account is closed owing to the death of the depositor.
