EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations amend the Public Service Regulations 1964.

The amendment made is consequential on the passing of the Government Superannuation Fund Amendment Act 1985. Part IIA of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956 (as inserted by section 13 of the Government Superannuation Fund Amendment Act 1985) contains a new Government Service Superannuation Scheme.

Section 611 sets out the entitlement to a retiring allowance of all contributors to the new Scheme—

- (a) Who have attained the age of 50 years; and
- (b) Who have completed not less than 10 years' contributory service; and
- (c) Who have agreed in writing that section 611 should apply to them; and
- (d) Whose controlling authority has agreed in writing that section 611 should apply to them.

The amendment made by these regulations ensures that the power that the State Services Commission has under the new section 611(4)(d) is additional to the provisions of the Public Service Regulations 1964 that relate to retirement policy and is not inconsistent with those provisions.
