EXPLANATORY NOTE

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 April 1987, amend the Public Service Regulations 1964 by revoking regulations 66, 67, and 68 (all of which are related to Government office accommodation) and regulation 70 (under which the Government Office Accommodation Board was established).

The revocations are consequential on the passing of the State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986, which removes from the State Services Commission, on 1 April 1987, its responsibility for the provision of suitable office accommodation for Departments of the Public Service.
