

1970/51

THE QUANTITY SURVEYORS REGULATIONS 1969,
AMENDMENT NO. 1

ARTHUR PORRITT, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 23rd day of March 1970

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Quantity Surveyors Act 1968, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

1. Title and commencement—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Quantity Surveyors Regulations 1969, Amendment No. 1, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Quantity Surveyors Regulations 1969* (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations).

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

2. Examination of quantity surveyors—The principal regulations are hereby amended by inserting, after Part V, the following Part:

“PART VI—EXAMINATION OF QUANTITY SURVEYORS

“33. Arrangements for the holding of examinations—(1) The Board may make arrangements with the controlling authority of any university, college, or school or with any other body or institution for the conduct of examinations on behalf of the Board, and of all matters incidental thereto.

“(2) The Board may, if it thinks fit, direct that all or any of the rules and regulations of the authority, body, or institution conducting any examination on behalf of or in co-operation with the Board shall apply to that examination and all matters incidental thereto, and in any such case the examination and all matters incidental thereto shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these regulations, be conducted according to those rules and regulations.

“(3) The Board may from time to time, at such intervals and at such convenient centres as it determines, hold or arrange for the holding of examinations of candidates for registration who are approved by the Board as hereinafter provided.

*S.R. 1969/182

“(4) The Board may decline to hold or arrange for the holding of an examination at any centre where in its opinion the total number of candidates is insufficient.

“34. Notice of time and place of examinations—The Board shall give due notice, by advertisement in the Gazette and in such newspapers or periodicals (if any) as the Board thinks fit, of the dates and places at which written examinations will be held and of the dates by which requests for permission to enter for such examinations must be received.

“35. Entries for examination—(1) An entry for any written examination may be accepted by the Board only if prior approval to enter has been given to the applicant by the Board after considering a request for permission to enter duly completed by him in form 7.

“(2) Entry for written examination shall be lodged with the Registrar in form 8.

“(3) Entries for the written examination accompanied by the prescribed fee shall be lodged with the Registrar not later than the 31st day of July of the year of examination:

“Provided that the Board may, if it thinks fit, on payment of a late entry fee in addition to the prescribed fee, permit any person who has not lodged an entry by the prescribed date, but who was given not less than 60 clear days’ notice before the date set for the examination, to present himself for examination.

“(4) If, after the payment of the prescribed fee and any additional late entry fee, the applicant withdraws his name or fails to attend for examination, no part of the fee shall be returned to him, but the Board may in its absolute discretion allow the fee to apply to the next examination at which the candidate is allowed to present himself.

“36. Conduction of examinations—(1) The Board may from time to time appoint suitable persons to be examiners, and may fix and pay such remuneration to the examiners as the Board thinks fit.

“(2) The Board may make all necessary arrangements for the conduct of examinations, and may employ and pay supervisors and hire examination rooms.

“(3) The supervisor may require any candidate presenting himself at an examination to furnish such proof of his identity as the supervisor may require.

“(4) Every candidate whose request for entry has been approved shall have a number allotted to him, and he shall be referred to only by that number until after the adoption by the Board of the examiners’ report detailing the examination results.

“(5) The examining body shall supply all writing material for the written examination, but each candidate shall provide any scales, rulers, slide rules, or drawing instruments necessary.

“(6) No books, memoranda, mathematical tables, regulations, note-books, or papers, other than those approved or supplied by the examining body for the purpose, shall be taken into, used, referred to, or produced in the examination room.

“(7) Any scales, rulers, slide rules, drawing instruments, books, tables, regulations, or papers used shall be openly displayed upon the desk or bench throughout the examination.

“37. Results of examinations—(1) The Registrar shall in due course send by post to every candidate a notification showing whether the candidate has passed or has not passed the written examination.

“(2) The Board shall publish in the Gazette the names of the persons who have passed the written examination.

“(3) Except as aforesaid, no person shall give any information as to the results of the written examination or any matter connected therewith except with the consent or authority of the Board or the Registrar.”

“38. Subjects of written examination—The subjects of the written examination shall be—

Section 1:

- (a) Building Economics.
- (b) Valuation of Existing Properties.
- (c) Cost Planning.

Section 2:

- (a) Advanced Professional Practice and Procedure.
- (b) Computers.
- (c) Building Management and Cost Control.

“39. Oral examination—Any applicant for registration under paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 12 of the Act shall present himself at such time and place and on such date as the Board directs for oral examination to enable the Board to form an opinion as to the applicant’s experience in quantity surveying.

“40. Examination fees—(1) The fee for each request for permission to enter for the written examination shall be $1.

“(2) The fee for the written examination shall be—

For Section 1	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....	$15.
For Section 2	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....	$15.

“(3) The additional fee for late entry for the written examination shall be $5.

“(4) The fees prescribed by this regulation shall be payable to the Board.”

3. Forms—The Schedule to the principle regulations is hereby amended by adding forms 7 and 8 set out in the Schedule to these regulations.
