Eligibility for sport fish licences and fees

4 Fish and game councils may issue licences

A fish and game council may issue 1 or more of the following classes of licence:

- (a) 24-hour licence;
- (b) family licence;
- (c) whole-season licence;
- (d) winter licence.

5 24-hour licence

If a fish and game council issues 24-hour licences, an adult or a junior may obtain a 24-hour licence from that council on payment of the appropriate fee specified in Part 1 of the Schedule.

6 Family licence

If a fish and game council issues family licences, an adult may obtain a family licence from that council on payment of the appropriate fee specified in Part 2 of the Schedule.

7 Whole-season licence

If a fish and game council issues whole-season licences,—

- (a) an adult or a junior may obtain a whole-season licence from that council on payment of the appropriate fee specified in Part 3 of the Schedule:
- (b) a child may obtain a whole-season licence from that council without payment.

8 Winter licence

If a fish and game council issues winter licences, an adult or a junior may obtain a winter licence from that council on payment of the appropriate fee specified in Part 4 of the Schedule.

9 Whole-season or family licence may be endorsed as backcountry licence

- (1) The holder of an adult or a junior whole-season licence, or the holder of a family licence, may apply to the Otago Fish and Game Council to have his or her licence endorsed as a backcountry licence.
- (2) The holder of a backcountry licence must—
 - (a) notify the Otago Fish and Game Council before commencing fishing for sports fish in the Greenstone backcountry fishery; and
 - (b) when requested by the Otago Fish and Game Council, provide information on the holder's use of the Greenstone backcountry fishery.
- (3) No fee is payable for a backcountry licence.

10 Holder of backcountry licence may apply for controlled-period licence

- (1) The holder of a backcountry licence may apply to the Otago Fish and Game Council to be issued with a controlled-period licence.
- (2) A maximum of 51 licences will be issued by ballot, and applications to participate in the ballot must be made in the period beginning on 1 September 2004 and ending on 31 October 2004.
- (3) If less than 51 licences are allocated by ballot, the Otago Fish and Game Council may invite applications for the remaining licences and issue those licences in accordance with the order in which the applications were received.

- (4) Licences issued under subclauses (2) or (3) entitle the holder to fish within the controlled period for the 3- or 4-day period specified in the licence.
- (5) No fee is payable for a controlled-period licence.

11 Fees inclusive of GST

The fees set out in the Schedule are inclusive of goods and services tax.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice, which comes into force on 1 October 2004,—

- fixes the forms and classes of licences to fish for sports fish:
- enables the holder of a whole-season licence or a family licence to have his or her licence endorsed as a backcountry licence, which entitles the holder to fish for sports fish in the Greenstone backcountry fishery:
- enables the holder of a backcountry licence to apply for a controlled-period licence, which entitles the holder to fish for sports fish in the Greenstone River:
- fixes the scope and effect of those classes of licence:

- provides for the licences issued in respect of any region to be available in all other regions (except the Taupo District):
- fixes the fees payable for licences to fish for sports fish. These fees have been set to recover the anticipated costs of management of the freshwater sports fish resource by Fish and Game New Zealand for the 2004–05 season.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 26 August 2004.
