This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force 28 days after the date of their notification in the Gazette, amend the Wildlife Regulations 1955.

The amendment removes from regulation 19A of the principal regulations a restriction that prevented licence holders reclaiming their hunting stands more than 24 hours before the official stand reclaiming time. Licence holders will now be able to reclaim their stands at the official stand reclaiming time appointed by the local acclimatisation society or at such earlier time as that society determines.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 22 February 1990.
