THE WILDLIFE SANCTUARY (SULPHUR POINT, LAKE ROTORUA) ORDER 1964

BERNARD FERGUSSON, Governor-General

A PROCLAMATION

PURSUANT to the Wildlife Act 1953 and subsection (7) of section 22 of the Reserves and Other Lands Disposal Act 1963, I, Brigadier Sir Bernard Edward Fergusson, the Governor-General of New Zealand, hereby proclaim as follows:

1. (1) This Proclamation may be cited as the Wildlife Sanctuary (Sulphur Point, Lake Rotorua) Order 1964.

(2) This Proclamation shall come into force on the day after the date of its notification in the Gazette.

2. In this Proclamation, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The Act” means the Wildlife Act 1953:

“Department” means the Department of Internal Affairs:

“Sanctuary” means the area described in the Schedule hereto:

“Secretary” means the Secretary for Internal Affairs.

3. The area described in the Schedule hereto is hereby declared to be a wildlife sanctuary for the purposes of the Act, subject to the conditions specified in clauses 4 to 8 of this Proclamation.

4. No person shall enter the sanctuary, except:

(a) Officers of the Wildlife Branch of the Department acting under instructions from the Conservator of Wildlife at Rotorua, or his deputy:

(b) Persons authorised in writing by the Secretary.

5. (1) Except as provided in subclause (2) of this clause, no person shall, except with the written authority of the Secretary, hunt or kill, take for any purpose, molest, capture, disturb, harry, or worry any living creature in the sanctuary.

(2) Any officer of the Wildlife Branch of the Department may at any time hunt or kill in the sanctuary any rabbit or hare or any wildlife for the time being specified in the Fifth Schedule to the Act or any animal of any species for the time being specified in the Sixth Schedule to the Act.

6. No person, other than an officer of the Wildlife Branch of the Department, shall, except with the written authority of the Secretary, take any firearms or explosives on to the sanctuary or use any firearms or explosives on the sanctuary.

7. No person shall, except with the written authority of the Secretary,—
- (a) Take, destroy, or disturb the eggs of any living creature in the sanctuary:
  - (b) Burn or clear by any means whatsoever any trees, shrubs, grasses, or other plant life on the sanctuary:
  - (c) Light any fire or do anything likely to cause a fire on the sanctuary.
8. No person shall—
- (a) Introduce or liberate in the sanctuary any living creature:
  - (b) Take or keep any domestic animal into or in the sanctuary:
  - (c) Deposit rubbish or leave litter in the sanctuary.
