

(4.) CHRISTCHURCH BOOTMAKERS.

Board of Conciliation, Canterbury District.—In the matter of “The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1894,” and the Acts amending the same; and in the matter of a dispute between Messrs. Suckling Brothers, boot-manufacturers, of Tuam Street, Christchurch, and the New Zealand Federated Boot-trade Industrial Union of Workmen.

The Board of Conciliation for the Canterbury District, having taken into consideration the above dispute, and having heard the contentions of the parties on either side, recommend as follows:—

That the parties hereto adopt the award of the Court of Arbitration, dated the 3rd day of December, 1896, in the dispute between the New Zealand Federated Boot-trade Industrial Association of Workmen and the New Zealand Boot-manufacturers' Industrial Union of Employers, and be bound by the terms, conditions, and provisions of the same and the schedule thereunto, and also be bound by the existing schedule of prices and extras for piecework as agreed upon by the New Zealand Federated Boot-trade Industrial Association of Workmen and the New Zealand Boot-manufacturers' Industrial Union of Employers; and that the same remain in force until the 31st day of December, 1897.

Dated at Christchurch, this 28th day of April, 1897.

H. J. BESWICK, Chairman.

Board of Conciliation, Canterbury District.—In the matter of “The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1894,” and the Acts amending the same; and in the matter of a dispute between Messrs. Maine Brothers, boot-manufacturers, of High Street, Christchurch, and the New Zealand Federated Boot-trade Industrial Union of Workmen.

The Board of Conciliation for the Canterbury District, having taken into consideration the above dispute, and having heard the contentions of the parties on either side, and having heard certain evidence, recommend as follows:—

That the parties hereto adopt the award of the Court of Arbitration, dated the 3rd day of December, 1896, in the dispute between the New Zealand Federated Boot-trade Industrial Association of Workmen and the New Zealand Boot-manufacturers' Industrial Union of Employers, and be bound by the terms, conditions, and provisions of the same and the schedule thereto, without prejudice to, and except in so far as clause 4, subsection (b), of the said schedule may be in conflict with any agreements which may have been entered into and are now existing between Maine Brothers and any of their employés, and also be bound by the existing schedule of prices and extras for piecework as agreed upon by the New Zealand Federated Boot-trade Industrial Union of Workmen and the New Zealand Boot-manufacturers' Industrial Union of Employers; and that the same remain in force until the 31st day of December, 1897.

Dated at Christchurch, this 28th day of April, 1897.

H. J. BESWICK, Chairman.
