

(14.) CANTERBURY CARPENTERS.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand.—In the matter of “The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1894,” and the amendments thereof; and in the matter of an industrial dispute between the Canterbury Carpenters and Joiners’ Association Industrial Union of Workmen, and Williams and Stephens and James Goss (hereinafter called “the said employers”).

This Court, having heard the Canterbury Carpenters and Joiners’ Association Industrial Union of Workmen by its representative, and the said employers not appearing either personally or by agent, doth hereby award as follows, that is to say:—

1. The said employers and the Canterbury Carpenters and Joiners’ Association Industrial Union of Workmen respectively shall respectively be bound by all the provisions of the award made in this Court, and dated the 13th day of July, 1897, in the matter of an industrial dispute between the Christchurch Builders’ Association and the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners and the said the Canterbury Carpenters and Joiners’ Association as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as though the said employers had been made parties to the said last-named industrial dispute, and had been expressly mentioned in the said award.

2. And this Court doth further award and order that as between the said the Canterbury Carpenters and Joiners’ Association Industrial Union of Workmen and every member thereof, and the said employers and each and every of them, the terms and conditions of the said award and hereof shall be binding upon the said the Canterbury Carpenters and Joiners’ Association Industrial Union of Workmen and every member thereof, and the said employers and each and every of them, and that the said the Canterbury Carpenters and Joiners’ Association Industrial Union of Workmen and every member thereof, and the said employers and each and every of them respectively, shall do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by the said terms and conditions on its and their part respectively required to be done, observed, or performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of the said terms and conditions.

And this Court doth further order that a duplicate of this award shall be filed in the office of the Supreme Court of New Zealand, Canterbury District, at Christchurch.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand hath been hereunto affixed, and the President of the said Court has hereunto set his hand, this 2nd day of June, 1898.
