

(14.) WELLINGTON BAKERS.

In the Conciliation Board, Wellington District.—In the matter of an industrial dispute between the Wellington Operative Bakers' Industrial Union of Workers and the Employers, and of a reference thereof for settlement.

The Board report that, after having heard the parties to this dispute, they recommend as follows:—

That an industrial agreement, embodying the terms of the award of the Court of Arbitration in the matter made on the 3rd day of February, 1898, be drawn up and executed by the parties.

That there shall be inserted therein a clause to the effect that any breach of the agreement may be punished by a fine of £10, to be recovered in the Magistrate's Court, and if such breach be by a member of a union, either of masters or men, the union to which such member belongs shall be primarily responsible for the penalty.

That if such agreement be not signed within seven days, the Chairman be empowered to file a report that this Board has failed to bring about a settlement.

The Board suggest that, in drawing up the industrial agreement, care should be taken that the parties be properly described.

Dated 31st August, 1898.

W. H. QUICK.

In the Conciliation Board, Wellington District.—In the matter of an industrial dispute between the Wellington Operative Bakers' Industrial Union of Workers and the Employers, and of a reference thereof for settlement.

The Board sat to consider this dispute, and on the 31st day of August, 1898, made and published their recommendations, a copy whereof is annexed hereto. More than seven days having elapsed since that date, and the employers, or some of them party to this dispute, having signified in writing their intention not to sign the industrial agreement, and the agreement not having been executed, the Board do report that they have been unable to bring about any settlement of the dispute referred to them satisfactory to all parties thereto.

W. H. QUICK,
Chairman of the Board.

Dated this 19th day of September, 1898.
