THE SCHEDULE HEREINBEFORE REFERRED TO.

3. All work in hand in connection with haircutting and shaving shall be finished before the workmen leave their work.

4. Minimum Wages.—The minimum wages to be paid to journeymen shall be the sum of £2 10s. per week.

5. Holidays.—The following days shall be full holidays: New Year's Day, Good Friday, Labour Day, Anniversary Day, and Christmas Day.

6. On the last working-day previous to the happening of any of the above-mentioned holidays Saturday hours shall be observed.

7. The following days shall be observed as partial holidays: Easter Monday, from 12 noon; Easter Tuesday, from 12 noon; the King's Birthday, from 11 o'clock in the forenoon; the second Show day in Show week, from 11 o'clock in the forenoon; Boxing Day, from 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

8. No deduction shall be made from the week's wages for any of the said full or partial holidays.

9. Qualification for Journeymen.—A journeyman shall mean one who has been employed in the trade for a total period of at least five years.

10. Incompetent Workmen.—Any workman who considers himself not capable of earning the wage mentioned in paragraph 4 hereof may be paid such less wage as may from time to time be agreed upon in writing between any employer and the secretary or president of the union; and, in default of such agreement within twenty-four hours after such journeyman shall have applied in writing to the secretary of the union stating his desire that such wage shall be agreed upon, such wage as shall be fixed in writing by the Chairman of the Conciliation Board for the industrial district upon the application of such journeyman after twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the secretary of the union, who shall, if desired by him, be heard by such Chairman on such application. Any journeyman whose wage shall have been so fixed may work and may be employed by any employer for such less wage for the period of six calendar months, and, after the expiration of the said period of six calendar months, until fourteen days' notice in writing shall have been given to him by the secretary of the union requiring his wage to be again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause.

11. Preference of Employment.—If and so long as the rules of the union shall permit any person now employed in the trade in this industrial district, and any person who may hereafter reside in this industrial district, and who is a competent journeyman, to become a member of such union upon payment of an entrance fee not exceeding 5s., and of subsequent contributions, whether payable weekly or not, not exceeding 6d. per week, upon a written application of the person so desiring to join the union, without ballot or election, then and in such case employers shall, when engaging a workman, employ members of the union in preference to non-members, provided that there are members of the union equally qualified with non-members to perform the particular work required to be done, and ready and willing to undertake it.

12. Until the rules of the union are, if necessary, altered in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding clause, employers may employ any person whether a member of the union or not; but no employer shall discriminate against members of the union, and no employer shall, in the employment or dismissal of any person or in the conduct of his business, do anything for the purpose of injuring the union, whether directly or indirectly.

13. When members of the union and non-members are employed together there shall be no distinction between members and non-members, and both shall work together in harmony, and shall receive equal pay for equal work.

14. When the rules of the union are such as to entitle the members of the union to preference under the foregoing clauses, and at all times thereafter, the union shall keep in some convenient place within one mile from the Chief Post-office in the City of Christchurch a book to be called "the employment-book," wherein shall be entered the names and exact addresses of all members of the union for the time being out of employment, with a description of the branch of the trade in which such member claims to be proficient, and the names, addresses, and occupations of every employer by whom such member shall have been employed during the preceding one year. Immediately upon such member obtaining employment a note thereof shall be entered in such book. The executive of the union shall use their best endeavours to verify all the entries contained in such book, and the union shall be answerable as for a breach of this award in case any entry therein shall in any particular be wilfully false to the knowledge of the executive of the union, or in case the executive of the union shall not have used reasonable endeavours to verify the same. Such book shall be open to every employer without fee or charge at all hours between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on every working-day except Saturday, and on that day between the hours of 8 a.m. and noon. If the union fail to keep the employment-book in manner provided by this clause, then and in such case, and so long as such failure shall continue, any employer may, if he so thinks fit, employ any person or persons, whether a member of the union or not, to perform the work required to be performed, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions. Notice by advertisement in the Press and Lyttelton Times newspapers, published in the City of Christchurch, shall be given by the union of the place where such employment-book is kept, and of any change in such place.

15. Apprentices.—Apprentices shall be legally bound for a term of five years. Any employer shall, before taking an apprentice, be entitled to take him for three months on probation, and, if at the end of such probation he becomes a bound apprentice, such period of three months shall be reckoned as part of the period of apprenticeship which under this paragraph he is to serve.

16. The proportion of apprentices shall be regulated as follows: One apprentice for every three journeymen or fraction of three journeymen permanently employed. ("Permanently employed" to mean at least six months' continuous employment) Where an employer has more than the above proportion of duly indentured apprentices at the time of adopting these rules, no new one to be taken on until the number has been reduced below the proportion stipulated. No employer to have more than five apprentices

17. Arrangements between employers and apprentices existing at the time of the hearing of this dispute in this Court shall not be prejudiced, but any employer then employing any apprentice otherwise than under indentures must procure such apprentice to be indentured within three calendar months after the coming into operation of this award.

18. If any employer shall, from any unforeseen cause, be unable to fulfil his obligation to an apprentice, it shall be lawful for such apprentice to complete his term with another employer notwithstanding that such employer has already the full number of apprentices allowed by these conditions.

19. Wages of Apprentices.—Apprentices shall be paid the following wages: During the first year of their apprenticeship, 5s. per week; during the second year of their apprenticeship, 10s. per week; during the third year of their apprenticeship, 15s. per week; during the fourth year of their apprenticeship, £1 per week; during the fifth year of their apprenticeship, £1 10s. per week.

20. Period of Award.—This award shall take effect on Monday, the 19th day of August, 1901, and shall continue in force until the 19th day of August, 1903.

21. Limitation of Award.—This award shall apply to and bind employers in Christchurch and its suburbs only, and shall not extend to or bind any persons in any other part of the Industrial District of Canterbury.

22. It shall not apply to tobacconists who are not carrying on the business of hairdressers.

23. The foregoing paragraphs 1 to 23 inclusive embody the terms, conditions, and provisions referred to in the foregoing award, and are hereby declared to be incorporated in and to form part thereof.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand hath been hereto affixed, and the President of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 19th day of August, 1901.
