

(1398.) CANTERBURY DRIVERS.—AMENDING ORDER OF COURT RE
BAKERS' DRIVERS.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Canterbury Industrial District.—In the matter of “The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1905,” and its amendments; and in the matter of an award dated the 25th day of August, 1906, and filed in the office of the Clerk of Awards at Christchurch as No. 624, between the Canterbury Drivers' Industrial Union of Workers and the Canterbury Employers of Drivers' Industrial Union of Employers.

FRIDAY, THE 18TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1907.

THE Court having made an order on the 19th day of August, 1907, adding certain persons, firms, and companies as parties to the above-mentioned award, the conditions and qualifications upon which the persons, firms, and companies named in the Third Schedule to the said award were added having been first settled by agreement between the union and the said parties, and the Court being now satisfied that certain other conditions and qualifications which had been agreed upon by the union and the said parties were by inadvertence not stated to the Court and were not embodied in the said order, and the union and the said parties being desirous of having the said order amended so as to embody the said conditions and qualifications, this Court doth order that the said order of the 19th day of August, 1907, shall be and the same is hereby amended by adding the following clauses to those set out in clause 3 of the said order:—

5. In the case of youths not working full time at delivering they shall be allowed to fill in their time about the stable.

6. For those driving and attending to two or more horses the minimum weekly wage shall be £2 6s.

By the Court.

W. A. SIM Judge.
