

(1592.) AUCKLAND WATERSIDE WORKERS.—ADDING PARTIES
TO AWARD, WITH MODIFICATIONS.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Northern Industrial District.—In the matter of “The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1905,” and its amendments; and in the matter of an award dated the 11th day of June, 1907, between the Auckland Waterside Workers’ Industrial Union of Workers and the employers therein named; and in the matter of an application by the above-mentioned union to further extend the provisions of the said award.

MONDAY, THE 11TH DAY OF MAY, 1908.

UPON reading the order made herein upon the 18th day of October, 1907, and upon hearing Mr. Way on behalf of the above-named union and Mr. Smith on behalf of the Devonport Ferry Company (Limited), this Court doth order that the said company be and it is hereby added as a party to the said award as from the date hereof, subject to the following modifications:—

1. That one man only, as at present (instead of two at the tip as provided by clause 14), shall be required receiving coal on the company’s hulk at Stanley Bay, so long as the existing conditions remain.

2. That Devonport instead of Auckland shall be the place of engagement for casual hands who are residents of Devonport who may obtain casual work at the company’s slip.

By the Court.

B. M. WILSON, Registrar.

MEMORANDUM.

The terms set out in this order were agreed on by the parties. The company asked the Court to alter the hours of work fixed by the award, but there seemed to be no sufficient reason for making this alteration.

B. M. WILSON, Registrar.
