

(2882.) AUCKLAND ENGINEERS.—ADDING PARTIES TO AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Northern Industrial District. — In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and its amendments; and in the matter of an award made in an industrial dispute between the Auckland Branch of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers' Industrial Union of Workers and the Auckland Taxi-cab Company and other employers, and dated the 19th day of December, 1910.

Wednesday, the 3rd day of September, 1913.

UPON the application of the above-named union, and upon hearing the representative of the said union and such of the undermentioned employers as were represented at the hearing of the said application, this Court doth order that the Auto-machine Manufacturing Company (Limited), of Nelson Street, Auckland, shall be and the said company is hereby added as a party to the said award as from the 8th day of September, 1913; and this Court doth further order that the other employers named in the schedule hereto shall be and they are hereby added as parties to the said award as from the 8th day of September, 1913, subject to the following conditions:—

1. The said employers shall pay not less than the wages fixed by the said award for any work coming within the scope thereof, and shall pay overtime for any work done by any worker in excess of forty-seven hours in any one week at the following rates—that is to say, time and a quarter for the first two hours and time and a half thereafter.

2. They shall also pay the rates prescribed by the said award for any work done on Sundays or on any of the holidays mentioned in the said award.

3. They are exempted from the operation of all the other provisions of the said award, including those contained in clause 3 thereof.
