Rates of Wages.

2. The following shall be the minimum rates of wages for workers engaged in quarry-work: Workers engaged in getting out stone roughly squared to measurement, and workers who require a permit under the Stone-quarries Act and certificated men, 1s. 3d. per hour; all other workers engaged in quarry-work, 1s. 2d. per hour.

3. (a.) Youths may be employed at not less than the following rates: Up to seventeen years, 15s. per week; up to eighteen years, £1 per week; up to nineteen years, £1 4s. per week; up to twenty years, 5s. per day (£1 10s. per week); up to twenty-one years, 9d. per hour (6s. per day, £1 16s. per week).

(b.) The proportion of youths shall be one to every five men fully employed, or two to every ten men fully employed.

5. All tools shall be supplied by employers.

Under-rate Workers.

6. (a.) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of such worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such Inspector or person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such Inspector or other person may think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b.) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such Inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until fourteen days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner provided by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such Inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c.) Notwithstanding the foregoing it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d.) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e.) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.
