

(3977.) WANGANUI GAS STOKERS, COKERS, AND TRIMMERS.—
AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Wellington Industrial District.—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and its amendments; and in the matter of an industrial dispute between the Mayor, Councillors, and Burgesses of the Borough of Wanganui (hereinafter called “the employer”) and the Wanganui Gas Stokers, Cokers, and Trimmers’ Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called “the union”).

THE Court of Arbitration of New Zealand (hereinafter called “the Court”), having taken into consideration the matter of the above-mentioned dispute, and having heard the union by its representatives duly appointed, and having also heard the employer by its representatives duly appointed, doth hereby order and award:—

That, as between the union and the members thereof and the employer, the terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the schedule hereto and of this award shall be binding upon the union and upon every member thereof and upon the employer, and that the said terms, conditions, and provisions shall be deemed to be and they are hereby incorporated in and declared to form part of this award; and, further, that the union and every member thereof and the employer shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this award and by the said terms, conditions, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this award or of the said terms, conditions, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same. And the Court doth hereby further award, order, and declare that any breach of the said terms, conditions, and provisions set out in the schedule hereto shall constitute a breach of this award, and that the sum of £100 shall be the maximum penalty payable by any party or person in respect thereof. And the Court doth further order that this award shall take effect as from the 1st day of June, 1914, and shall continue in force until the 31st day of May, 1916.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 26th day of November, 1914.

SCHEDULE.

Stokers' Regulations for Retort-house.

1. (a.) A week's work shall consist of seven shifts. A shift or working-day shall consist of eight hours. Thirty minutes to be allowed each man per shift for meals. The whole of the stokers shall not be absent from the retort-house at one time during the shift.

(b.) The number of retorts to be drawn and charged during each shift shall be governed by the demand and make of gas.

(c.) The quantity of coal to be used by each man during each week of seven days shall not exceed 17 tons.

(d.) When the aforesaid quantity of coal is exceeded then extra stokers shall be employed.

Gasmaking stopped.

2. When gasmaking has to be stopped through the holders being full stokers shall not be required to work in the yard, except in cases of breakdown or accident, when stokers shall render assistance to repair the damage or defect if required.

Shortening Hands.

3. In shortening hands in the retort-house work is to be found in the yard for those coming out of the retort-house if possible, but no employee is to be discharged to make room.

Rate of Wages.

4. Each stoker shall receive 11s. per shift of eight hours. Each stoker shall be allotted a given number of retorts to draw and charge, and shall draw and charge the same and do all work appertaining thereto, and shall confer with the foreman or manager on matters bearing on the work as necessity arises, but shall not be called upon to clinker fires or to remove the carbon from the retorts.

Holidays.

5. Fourteen holidays on full pay every twelve months shall be allowed to be taken in December, January, February, or March. On leaving the employment holidays shall be allowed at the rate of one per month of service. Casual stokers shall be allowed one holiday per month for each month worked in the retort-house. This award shall have reference only to the working and charging of horizontal retorts.

Payment of Wages.

6. Wages shall be paid weekly on the Friday of each week, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. or from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., as the Borough Council shall decide.

Preference.

7. (a.) If the gas manager or any other person in charge of the gasworks shall hereafter engage any worker as a stoker who shall not be a member of the union, and who within fourteen days after his engagement by his employer shall not become a member of the union and remain such member, the employer shall dismiss such worker from his service if requested to do so by the union, provided there is then a member of the union equally qualified to perform the particular work required to be done, and ready and willing to undertake the same.

(b.) Provided further that if a worker is engaged as a casual hand, and is a member of the Wanganui Labourers' Industrial Union of Workers or any other union of workers, it shall not be obligatory upon such worker to become a member of the union.

(c.) The provisions of the foregoing clauses shall operate only if and so long as the rules of the union shall permit any person of good character and sober habits to become a member of the union upon payment of an entrance fee not exceeding 5s., upon a written or verbal application, without ballot or other election, and to continue a member upon payment of subsequent contributions not exceeding 6d. per week.

Notice-board.

8. A notice-board shall be hung in the retort-house, and all notices or alterations in the mode of working, such as the size of charges, shall be noted on the board and signed by the person having authority to place such notice on the board.

Term of Award.

9. This award shall come into force as from the 1st day of June, 1914, and shall continue in force until the 31st day of May, 1916.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the said Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 26th day of November, 1914.
