

(4666.) AUCKLAND BUTCHERS.—ORDER ADDING PORK-BUTCHERS AS PARTIES TO AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Northern Industrial District. — In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and its amendments; and in the matter of an award dated the 7th day of April, 1916, made in an industrial dispute between the Auckland Butchers, Meat-preservers, and Bacon-curers' Industrial Union of Workers and the Auckland Provincial Master Butchers' Industrial Union of Employers and others.

Friday, the 15th day of June, 1917.

UPON reading an application filed herein on the 9th day of November, 1916, and upon hearing the duly appointed representatives of the above-named union of workers and of such of the persons and firms hereinafter mentioned as were represented, this Court doth order that the said persons and firms be and they are hereby added as parties to the said award, subject to the following modifications or conditions:—

1. The provisions of clause 1 of the said award shall not apply to any of the said persons or firms.

2. The hours of work for workers employed by the said persons and firms shall be regulated by the Factories Act or the Shops and Offices Act, as the case may be.

3. In regard to the said persons and firms a worker shall not be deemed to be a second shopman unless three or more shop-assistants are employed in the shop in question.

4. Nothing contained in the said award shall be deemed to apply to the employment of females as shop-assistants in the shops of the said persons or firms.

5. This order shall come into force as from the 2nd day of July, 1917.
