SCHEDULE.

Hours of Work.

1. The hours of work shall not exceed forty-five per week, to be fixed by each employer subject to the provisions of the Factories Act, 1908, and its amendments.

Wages.

2. (a.) The minimum wage shall be: For the first six months, 12s. 6d. per week; for the second six months, 15s. per week; for the second year, 17s. 6d. per week; for the third year, £1 2s. 6d. per week; for the fourth year, £1 7s. 6d. per week; and thereafter £1 15s. per week. Female overseer in boxmaking department, £2 per week. "Female overseer" is one acting under a foreman, and under his instructions supervises the work of others.

(b.) Time lost by a worker through sickness or default, or through her voluntary absence from work with the consent of the employer, may be deducted from her wages.

Overtime.

3. Overtime shall be paid for at the following rates: Workers receiving up to £1 per week, 9d. per hour; workers receiving more than £1 per week and up to £1 10s. per week, 1s. per hour; workers receiving more than £1 10s. per week, 1s. 3d. per hour.

Holidays.

4. The following holidays shall be observed and paid for: 1st January, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Sovereign's Birthday, Show Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day. Should any of these holidays fall on a Sunday the following day shall be observed. For work done on any of these holidays double-time rates shall be paid.

Payment of Wages.

5. Payment of wages and overtime shall be made not later than Friday of each week, and shall be for work done up to the evening preceding pay-day.

Preference.

6. (a.) Upon completion of one year's service in the industry covered by this award a worker may be required by the secretary of the union to become a member thereof, and if she shall fail or neglect to become a member thereof within seven days after the receipt by her of such notice the employer shall dismiss such worker from his service if requested to do so by the union, provided there is then a member of the union equally qualified to perform the particular work required to be done, and ready and willing to undertake the same.

(b.) The provisions of the foregoing clause shall operate only if and so long as the rules of the union shall permit any worker coming within the scope of this award of good character and sober habits to become a member of the union upon payment of an entrance fee not exceeding 2s. 6d., upon a written application, without ballot or other election, and so to continue a member upon payment of subsequent contributions not exceeding 3d. per week.

Piecework.

7. Provided that the union and the employer are in agreement piecework may be worked, provided that the rate for such work shall be such as to enable the worker to earn not less than 15 per cent. above the minimum rates of wages herein provided. If the union and the employer shall not agree as to piecework or as to the rate thereof such dispute shall be settled in the manner provided in clause 8 hereof.

Matters not provided for.

8. Any dispute in connection with any matter not provided for in this award shall be settled between the particular employer concerned and the secretary or president of the union, and in default of any agreement being arrived at then such dispute shall be referred to the local Inspector of Awards, who may either decide the same or refer the matter to the Court. Either party dissatisfied with the decision of the Inspector of Awards may appeal to the Court upon giving written notice of such appeal to the other party within seven days after such decision shall be communicated to the party desiring to appeal.

Scope of Award.

9. This award shall operate throughout the Canterbury Industrial District.

Term of Award.

10. This award so far as relates to wages shall come into force as from the 6th day of June, 1919, and so far as all the other provisions of this award are concerned it shall come into force on the 15th day of September, 1919, and this award shall continue in force until the 6th day of June, 1921.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the said Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 2nd day of September, 1919.

T. W. STRINGER, Judge.

MEMORANDUM.

This award embodies without alteration the recommendations of the Conciliation Council, which the parties agreed to accept. By agreement of the parties the award is made retrospective in its operation as regards wages.
