(7340.) TARANAKI BAKERS AND PASTRYCOOKS. — ORDER AMENDING AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Taranaki Industrial District.—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and its amendments; and in the matter of the Taranaki Industrial District Bakers and Pastrycooks and their Labourers' award, dated the 30th day of September, 1922.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by section 92 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and section 5 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Amendment Act, 1921-22, and with the consent of the parties, this Court, being of the opinion that it is just and equitable to amend the said award, doth hereby order that the said award shall be amended in manner following, that is to say:—

1. Subclause (h) of clause 6 of the said award shall be deleted, and the following provision substituted therefor:—

“( h.) An annual holiday of one week on full pay shall be granted to each worker on completion of each year of service computed from the date of the coming into force of this award ; or the worker may agree with the employer to accept a full week's wages in lieu of the week's holiday ; and in the event of no agreement being arrived at the matter shall be referred to the Inspector of Awards for the district, and his decision shall be final and binding on the parties. Such holiday shall be taken at a time to be mutually agreed on by the employer and the worker, and in the event of no agreement being arrived at the matter shall be referred to the District Inspector of Awards, whose decision shall be binding on the parties."

2. This order shall operate and take effect as from the date hereof.
Dated this 3rd day of November, 1922.

MEMORANDUM.

The amendment of the award made by this order was agreed upon at a conference of the parties presided over by the Conciliation Commissioner. The Commissioner reported that the parties had agreed that the arrangement entered into was not to be regarded as a precedent, but was a special arrangement made in view of the difficulty of obtaining relieving bakers, more especially in the country districts. The matters upon which the Inspector is to adjudicate relate accordingly to the circumstances of the individual employers and their workers, and the practicability of obtaining relieving bakers in the particular cases in which the persons concerned have been unable to come to an agreement.
