

(7489.) ROTORUA PRIVATE-HOTEL EMPLOYEES.—AMENDMENT OF AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Northern Industrial District.—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and its amendments; and in the matter of the Rotorua Private-hotel Employees' award, dated the 3rd day of November, 1922, and recorded in Book of Awards, Vol. xxiii, p. 810; and in the matter of an application by the Auckland Hotel and Restaurant Employees' Industrial Union of Workers to amend the said award.

In pursuance of the powers conferred by section 92 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and for the purpose of remedying a defect in the Rotorua Private-hotel Employees' award dated the 3rd day of November, 1922, and recorded in Book of Awards, Vol. xxiii, p. 810, this Court, being of the opinion that it is just and equitable to amend the said award, doth hereby order that the said award shall be amended in manner following, that is to say—

1. The following clause is hereby added to the said award:—

“ 20. (a.) If any employer shall hereafter engage any worker coming within the scope of this award who shall not be a member of the union and who shall not become a member thereof within seven days after his or her engagement and remain such member, the employer shall dismiss such worker from his service if requested to do so by the union, provided there is then a member of the union equally qualified to perform the particular work required to be done, and ready and willing to undertake the same.

“(b.) The provisions of the foregoing clause shall operate only if and so long as the rules of the union shall permit any worker coming within the scope of this award of good character and sober habits to become a member of the union upon payment of an entrance fee not exceeding 5s., upon a written application, without ballot or other election, and to continue a member upon payment of subsequent contributions not exceeding 6d. per week.

“(c.) The organizing secretary of the union shall be permitted to interview employees at their places of employment at a convenient place to be set aside by the employer on any day of the week at a suitable time to be arranged between the employer and the organizing secretary of the union.

“(d.) Employers shall, if requested by the organizing secretary of the union, supply him with a list of the names of the members of the staff.”

2. This order shall operate and take effect as from the date hereof.
Dated this 13th day of April, 1923.

MEMORANDUM

The recommendations filed in the dispute did not provide for preference, and the parties are satisfied that the omission was unintentional. The clause in the above form was agreed to by the representatives of the employers and of the union at the hearing of the application to amend the award.
