

CANTERBURY INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

(7541.) CANTERBURY IRON AND BRASS MOULDERS.—ORDER AMENDING AWARD.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Canterbury Industrial District.—In the matter of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and its amendments; and in the matter of the Canterbury Iron and Brass Moulders' award, dated the 22nd day of December, 1922, and recorded in Book of Awards, Vol. xxiii, p. 1256.

In pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by section 92 of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1908, and for the purpose of remedying a defect in and giving fuller effect to the Canterbury Iron and Brass Moulders' award, dated the 22nd day of December, 1922, this Court, being of the opinion that it is just and equitable to amend the said award, doth hereby order that the said award shall be amended in manner following, that is to say,—

1. The following subclauses are hereby added to clause 7 of the said award :—

“(i.) When an apprentice is discharged for cause the employer shall send notice of the discharge and of the cause thereof to the Inspector of Factories, who shall forthwith notify the secretary of the union.

“(j.) All time lost through his own default or through sickness in any year of his apprenticeship shall be made up by an apprentice before he shall be considered to have entered upon the next succeeding year of his apprenticeship, but an apprentice working overtime shall have such time added to his ordinary time in calculating the respective years of his apprenticeship.

“(k.) An employer shall not be bound to pay an apprentice for time lost through sickness or through the default of the apprentice, or by his voluntary absence from work with the consent of the employer.”

2. This order shall be deemed to have operated and taken effect as from the 22nd day of December, 1922.

Dated this 19th day of June, 1923.
