

(8036.) WANGANUI DISTRICT PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.—
APPRENTICESHIP ORDER.

In the Court of Arbitration of New Zealand, Wellington Industrial District. — In the matter of the Apprentices Act, 1923; and in the matter of the conditions of apprenticeship in the painting and decorating industry within the Wanganui District.

Friday, the 19th day of December, 1924.

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 4 (1) of the Apprentices Act, 1923, an Apprentice Committee has been set up for the Wanganui District in connection with the painting, paperhanging, decorating, sign-writing, and glazing, other than leadlight-making, industry: And whereas the Court has heard the employers, workers, and other persons concerned, and has considered the recommendations made to it by the said committee: And whereas the Court has deemed it expedient to make an order under section 5 of the said Act prescribing the wages, hours, and other conditions of employment to be incorporated in contracts of apprenticeship in the said industry in the said district, and prescribing such other matters and things as the Court is required and authorized by the said section to prescribe: Now, therefore, the Court doth hereby order and prescribe as follows:—

1. The locality in which this order shall have effect shall be that part of the Wellington Industrial District, which is bound by a straight line drawn from the mouth of the Patea River to Pipiriki, up the Wanganui River to the 39th parallel, along the 39th parallel to the Ruahine Ranges, along the Ruahine Ranges to the Kawhatu Stream, thence the Kawhatu Stream to the Rangitikei River, continuing along the Rangitikei River to the sea.

2. The trade or industry to which this order shall apply is painting, paperhanging, decorating, signwriting, and glazing, other than leadlight-making.

3. Every contract of apprenticeship and every alteration or amendment thereof shall be in writing and signed by the employer and the apprentice, and, if the apprentice is under the age of twenty-one years, by the parent or guardian (if any) of the apprentice, and shall be registered by the employer in the prescribed manner within fourteen days of the date thereof, with the District Registrar.

4. The minimum age at which a person may commence to serve an apprenticeship shall be fifteen years.

5. The term of apprenticeship shall be five years.

6. The proportion of the total number of apprentices to the total number of journeymen employed in the industry in the district shall be not more than one to three. The proportion of the total number of apprentices to the total number of journeymen employed by any employer shall be not more than one to two.

7. For the purpose of determining from time to time the total number of journeymen employed by any employer, or in the trade or industry in the district, each employer shall, during the month of April in each year, furnish to the District Registrar a statement of the number of journeymen employed by him for at least two-thirds full time during the six months ended on the 31st day of March last preceding. Every employer who has not furnished such statement for the six months ended on the 31st day of March, 1924, shall do so during the month of January, 1925. For the purposes of this order an employer who himself works at the trade shall be entitled to count himself as a journeyman.

8. The minimum rate of wages payable to apprentices shall be as follows: For the first year of apprenticeship, £1 5s. per week; and a subsequent annual increase of 10s. per week during the term of apprenticeship.

9. If ordered to do so by the Court or a committee, any apprentice residing within a radius of five miles from a technical college or school or other approved institution shall during the first two years of his apprenticeship attend the classes in such college, school, or institution in painting, paperhanging, decorating, signwriting, and glazing (other than leadlight-making) trades, and in such case the employer shall refund to the apprentice the amount of the fees for each term in which his attendance is not less than 75 per cent. of the maximum possible, and provided the reports of his instructors are satisfactory.

10. The period of probation to be prescribed in any contract of apprenticeship to enable the employer of any apprentice to determine his fitness shall not exceed three months in the case of his first apprenticeship to the trade, and shall not exceed one month in any other case.

11. A person under twenty-one years of age who has served part of his apprenticeship to the trade outside of New Zealand may complete the term of apprenticeship herein provided for with an employer in the district on furnishing to the District Registrar a certificate from his former employer, or such other evidence (if any) as the District Registrar may require, in order to show the time served by such person as an apprentice outside of New Zealand. The District Registrar may refuse to register any contract of apprenticeship entered into under the provisions of this clause until such evidence has been furnished to him. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the District Registrar may within fourteen days appeal to the Court, whose decision shall be final and conclusive. The period of probation in cases coming within the scope of this clause shall not exceed one month.

12. An apprentice shall make up all time lost by him in any year through his own default or sickness, or any other cause not directly connected with the business of the employer (except where the apprentice meets with an accident outside of his employer's business and the lost time does not exceed three months during the term of apprenticeship, such apprenticeship shall not be extended for such three months' lost time) before he shall be considered to have entered on the next succeeding year of his apprenticeship, or, if in the final year, to have completed his apprenticeship.

13. An employer shall be entitled to make a rateable deduction from the wages of an apprentice for any time lost by him through sickness in excess of one week in any year, or through his own default, or through no fault of the employer.

14. The hours worked by apprentices shall, subject to the provisions of any statute, be those normally worked by journeymen in accordance with the provisions of the award or industrial agreement relating to the employment of journeymen for the time being in force in the district.

15. The minimum rate of overtime payable for apprentices shall be as follows: 1s. per hour for the first two years, 1s. 6d. per hour for the next two years, and 2s. per hour for the last year of apprenticeship.

16. The conditions of the award or industrial agreement referred to in clause 14 hereof, in so far as they relate to the method and time of payment of wages, holidays (except in regard to deductions for holidays), travelling-time, suburban work, country work, and meal money, and other matters (other than preference to unionists) relating generally to the employment and not in conflict with this order, shall be applicable to apprentices.

17. Every contract of apprenticeship shall accord with the provisions of the Apprentices Act, 1923, and this order, and shall make provision, either expressly or by reference to the said Act or this order, for the several matters provided for therein, and shall not contravene the provisions of any Act relating to the employment of boys or youths. In default of such provision being made in any such contract of apprenticeship, or in so far as such provision is defective or ambiguous, the contract shall be deemed to provide that the conditions of apprenticeship shall not be less favourable to the apprentice than the minimum requirements of this order.

18. It shall be an implied term in every contract of apprenticeship that the apprentice will diligently and faithfully obey and serve the employer as his apprentice for the prescribed term, and will not absent himself from the employer's service during the hours of work without the leave of the employer or except as permitted by this order, and, further, will not commit or permit or be accessory to any hurt or damage to the employer or his property, nor conceal any such hurt or damage if known to him, but will do everything in his power to prevent the same.

19. It shall be an implied term in every contract of apprenticeship that the employer will during the prescribed term, to the best of his power, skill, and knowledge, train and instruct the apprentice, or cause him to be trained and instructed, as a competent journeyman in the trade as carried on by the employer in the painting, paper-hanging, decorating, signwriting, glazing other than leadlight-making, or any branch or branches of the said trade to which the apprentice should be apprenticed, in accordance with the provisions of the Apprentices Act, 1923, and this order and any amendments thereof.

20. No premium in respect of the employment of any person as an apprentice shall be paid to or received by an employer, whether such premium is paid by the person employed or by any other person.

21. The provisions of this order shall not necessarily apply in the case of a special contract of apprenticeship entered into under the provisions of section 11 of the Apprentices Act, 1923.

22. It shall be an implied term in every contract of apprenticeship that the provisions of the Master and Apprentice Act, 1908, shall not apply thereto.

23. The powers conferred on the Court by paragraphs (b) to (l) inclusive of subsection (4) of section 5 of the said Act are hereby delegated by the Court to the said committee in so far as those powers relate to the said industry and locality, but reserving nevertheless power to the Court at any time and from time to time to withdraw all or any of such powers.

24. This order in so far as it relates to wages shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of December, 1924, and so far as all the other conditions of this order are concerned it shall come into force on the day of the date hereof.
