

(7822.) AUCKLAND FIRE BRIGADE EMPLOYEES. — AGREEMENT
WITH AUCKLAND FIRE BOARD UNDER THE LABOUR DISPUTES
INVESTIGATION ACT, 1913.

THIS agreement, made in pursuance of the Labour Disputes Investigation Act, 1913, this 20th day of June, 1924, between the Auckland Fire Brigade Employees' Industrial Union of Workers (hereinafter called the "union") of the one part, and the Auckland Fire Board (hereinafter called "the employers") of the other part, whereby it is mutually agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:—

1. That the terms, conditions, stipulations, and provisions contained and set out in the schedule hereto shall be binding upon the said parties, and they shall be deemed to be and are hereby declared to form part of this agreement.

2. The said parties hereto shall respectively do, observe, and perform every matter and thing by this agreement and by the said terms, conditions, stipulations, and provisions respectively required to be done, observed, and performed, and shall not do anything in contravention of this agreement or of the said terms, conditions, stipulations, and provisions, but shall in all respects abide by and perform the same.

This agreement under the Labour Disputes Investigation Act, 1913, made this 20th day of June, 1924, is as follows:—

Holidays and Leave.

2. Every member of the brigade shall receive the following leave without stoppage of pay:—

(a.) Fourteen consecutive days' holiday, including Sunday, on full pay for every twelve months of service. Such holiday to be given to be due on the anniversary of joining the brigade, and deemed within one month before or after such anniversary; and the superintendent shall give members not less than seven days' notice of the date upon which they shall be required to commence such leave.

(b.) Twenty-four hours every fourth day, commencing at 9 a.m.

(c.) Firemen with five or more years' service to their credit shall have added to their annual holiday leave any ordinary leave days accruing during the said fourteen days.

Uniforms.

3. On joining the brigade each member shall be supplied, free of charge, with a thoroughly sterilized and clean outfit of working-clothes, as follows: One peak cap, one pair of sea-boots, one pair of walking-boots, one uniform undress jacket, one fire-tunic, two fire-jerseys, and two pair uniform trousers. Immediately on expiry of period of probation; a complete new outfit as specified above. After twelve months following completion of probation each member shall be supplied with one peak cap, one undress uniform jacket or fire-tunic, one pair sea-boots or one pair walking-boots, two pairs of uniform trousers, and two fire-jerseys. All such articles shall be kept in thorough repair by the Board, and shall be renewed when damaged beyond repair or when considered necessary by the superintendent, but not less often than once a year.

Relieving Duty.

4. £1 per week to be paid by the employers to the Central Mess Fund to cover cost of meals of firemen and motormen engaged on out-station relieving duty.

Quarters.

5. The existing regulations in force relating to these matters shall be incorporated with and form part of this agreement.

Promotion.

6. Promotion to office, excluding superintendent and deputy superintendent, shall be made from firemen or motormen who have to their credit over three years' continuous service on the permanent staff of the brigade at the time the vacancy occurs, and shall be determined on the recommendation of the superintendent. In all cases seniority, capability, suitability, and record shall be taken into consideration.

*Preference.

7. (a.) From and after the coming into operation of this agreement all permanent employees and new members shall within seven days of becoming permanently employed become members of the union.

(b.) The entrance fee shall not exceed 5s., and subscriptions shall not exceed 6d. per week.

(c.) It shall be a condition of employment of permanent employees that such employees shall join the union as hereinbefore prescribed, and remain such members of the union while they are in the brigade and are competent to become members of the union.

(d.) If any employee joining the brigade shall neglect to become a member of the union within the time specified he shall be dismissed.

(e.) If any person who has already joined the union, or who shall pursuant to the provisions of this agreement join the union, shall voluntarily and of his own motion resign from the union he shall be liable to dismissal, and shall receive notification from the superintendent that he is so liable, and that unless he joins the union again within one week from the date of service of the notice his employment shall cease on the expiry of one week.

* It is considered that this clause is ultra vires and unenforceable. (See Magner v. Gohns, Book of Awards, Vol. xvii, p. 1006.)

Interpretation.

8. Any matter incidental to or arising out of this agreement, or any matter not provided for, shall be determined by a committee consisting of one representative appointed by each party to this agreement. In the event of no agreement being arrived at the matter shall be referred to the Conciliation Commissioner for the Northern Industrial District, whose decision shall be final.

Scope of Agreement.

9. This agreement shall be subject to the conditions contained in Part V of the by-laws made under section 43 of the Fire Brigades Act, 1908, and the regulations of the Auckland Fire Board.

Term of Agreement.

10. This agreement shall come into force on the 27th day of June, 1924, and shall continue in force until the 26th day of June, 1926.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have executed these presents on the 20th day of June, 1924.
