SCHEDULE.

Hours of Work.

1. (a.) Forty-eight hours shall constitute a week's work, and not more than ten hours shall be worked on any day without payment of overtime.

(b.) Except in special circumstances, workers shall not be brought back to work after their day's work is finished until after an interval of at least ten hours, and workers shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for the time by which such interval is curtailed.

(c.) No female shall be employed after the hour of 10.30 p.m. in contravention of the provisions of the Shops and Offices Act, 1921-22.

Holidays.

2. (a.) The working-hours above prescribed shall be worked within six days only in each week.

(b.) One full day's holiday of twenty-four consecutive hours shall be allowed to every worker covered by this award, and, so far as the exigencies of the business will reasonably permit, each worker respectively shall receive his or her holiday on the same day in each week.

(c.) Workers who are engaged in establishments which are closed for business on Sundays, or who under the preceding subclause of this clause receive their full day off on Sunday, shall be entitled, in addition to such full day's holiday, to a half-holiday from the hour of 2 p.m. on one of the working-days of the week.

(d.) In Show and Race Weeks the half-holiday or full day's holiday may be suspended if in lieu thereof the employer allows, in the case of the worker whose half-holiday is so suspended, one period of twenty-four hours' holiday instead of the usual half-holiday in one of the two weeks immediately following the week in which the half-holiday is so suspended; and, in the case of the worker whose full day's holiday is suspended, one period of forty-eight hours' holiday instead of the usual full day's holiday in one of the two weeks immediately following the week in which the full day's holiday is so suspended: Provided that any employer desiring to suspend any worker's holiday shall give not less than seven days' notice of his intention to do so to the nearest Inspector of Awards and to the Secretary of the union in the district concerned.

Nothing in this subclause shall permit of the employment of a worker for more than forty-eight hours in any one week without payment of overtime.

Annual Holidays and Special Payments.

3. (a.) Employees who work on Christmas Day or Good Friday shall be paid double rates for such work.

(b.) Employees who work on Boxing Day, Easter Monday, Sovereign's Birthday, or Labour Day shall be paid time-and-a-half rates for such work.

(c.) "Double rates" means one day's pay in addition to ordinary wages.

(d.) "Time-and-a-half rates" means one half-day's pay in addition to ordinary wages.

(e.) All employees shall be allowed one week's holiday on full pay after the completion of twelve months' service.

(f.) Such holiday is to be given and taken within a period of two months after the completion of the twelve months' service.

(g.) Where a worker's employment is terminated and such worker has been employed for six months or more but not exceeding twelve months, such worker shall be entitled to a proportionate allowance of holidays.

(h.) In the case of the transfer of a business the employer shall pay his proportionate share of holiday money due to each worker at the time of the transfer, provided that the period of the worker's employment is three months or more but less than six months.

(i.) "Full pay" means cash wages plus amount allowed for board and lodgings as provided in clause 10 hereof.

On the day of the holiday as provided, or in cases of emergency, an employer may require any worker in his employment to perform the work usually performed by another worker at the same rate of wages as is fixed for his or her own department: Provided that if such services extend over any more than one day in any week the appropriate higher rate shall be paid for each succeeding day.

The minimum rates set out in the second column under the heading "Section B" shall apply only to those employers listed under "Section B" who come within the terms of the proviso to clause 10 of this award.

Probationers.

5. Employers shall be at liberty to employ as waitresses, housemaid-waitresses, bar-attendants, counter hands, or dispensers in marble bars, female probationers, for a period not exceeding six months, at a wage of not less than 17s. 6d. per week, in the proportion of one probationer to each three or fraction of three employees engaged as waitresses, housemaid-waitresses, bar-attendants, counter hands, or dispensers in marble bars respectively in receipt of not less than the specified minimum wage. Only one period of probation shall be permissible, and after serving the specified period of probation the probationer shall be paid the minimum wage herein specified. Employers shall notify the nearest Inspector of Awards within seven days after engaging a probationer under this clause.

Casual Labour.

6. The following shall be the minimum rates for casual workers:—

(a.) Kitchen: Chef, £1 5s. per day for the first three days, thereafter ordinary wages.

(e.) Waitresses, 12s. 6d. per day for the first three days, thereafter ordinary wages.

(j.) Laundresses, 10s. per day.

(k.) All meals for casual employees are to be provided during the period of their employment.

(l.) A worker shall be deemed to be employed as a casual worker if his or her engagement is for a period of less than seven days.

(m.) A worker shall not be compelled to work longer than five hours without an interval of half an hour for a meal.

(n.) A day's casual labour shall not exceed eight hours.

Special Occasions.

7. Where work is done away from the employer's premises, such as at races, banquets, balls, outings, &c.—

(b.) Waiters and pantry hands, 15s. per day of eight hours.

(c.) Waitresses, 12s. 6d. per day of eight hours.

(d.) Waiters, waitresses, and pantry hands who are employed otherwise than by the day shall be paid not less than 7s. 6d. if employed for three hours or less, and for any time exceeding three hours at the rate of 2s. 6d. per hour for every additional hour worked.

(e.) Where workers are engaged by the day and are required to work later than midnight they shall be entitled to 1s. per hour additional to the daily wage for each hour worked after midnight until completion of the eight hours' period covered by the daily wage, and thereafter 2s. 6d. per hour.

(f.) An employer shall provide his employees with meals, and shall pay all fares and travelling-time from the time of departure from his place of business to attend a function until the time of arriving there on the return journey.

(g.) Except as to subclause (f), this clause shall not apply to members of the employer's staff usually employed at the employer's place of business when temporarily transferred from the employer's premises to other premises where a function is being held: Provided, however, that in the case of permanent employees being employed away from the employer's premises after 8 p.m., such employees shall be deemed to be casual workers for that particular work, and shall be paid under this clause.

(h.) "Travelling-time" shall cover time before 8 a.m. and after 5 p.m. only.

Period of Notice.

8. (a.) Where no agreement in writing is made fixing the period of notice, then a notice of not less than forty-eight hours shall be given by either party of the termination of the service; but this shall not affect the employer's right to dismiss an employee without notice for misconduct or other good cause: Provided that it shall not be lawful under this award for either the worker or the employer to give notice to terminate service on Saturday or Sunday of any week, or on the day preceding or the day of any public holiday.

(b.) For the purpose of computing broken time six or seven days shall count as a week, according to whether the business is a six- or seven-day establishment.

(c.) If any employer dismisses an employee without notice and without good cause he shall pay the employee two days' "full pay" as hereinbefore defined. If an employee leaves his employer's service without notice or without good cause he or she shall forfeit two days' "full pay." The employer shall be entitled to keep in hand two days' pay.

Payment of Wages.

9. (a.) Wages shall be paid weekly unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.

(b.) Deductions may be made from the weekly wages for any time lost by an employee through sickness or default.

Board and Lodging.

10. (a.) Subject as hereinafter mentioned, workers covered by this award shall be supplied by their respective employers with two substantial meals per working-day. It shall not be obligatory for any employer to supply his or her employees with meals on the day or on the half-day on which the premises are closed for business, but if employees are supplied with meals at such times no charge or deduction from the above rates of pay shall be made on account of the meals so supplied: Provided further that in lieu of supplying any worker with two meals a day as hereinbefore mentioned any employer may supply such worker with one meal per day only, in which case he or she shall pay the worker, in addition to the rates above mentioned, 1s. per day for every day on which he or she shall supply only one such meal; or he or she may elect not to supply any such meals, in which case he or she shall pay to such worker, in addition to the rates of pay above mentioned, 2s. per day for every day on which he or she supplies no meals.

(b.) In establishments which close for business not later than 6 p.m., it shall not be necessary to supply workers with more than one substantial meal—viz., at midday—or its equivalent 1s., and one light meal in the afternoon.

(c.) A "substantial meal" means a meal with meat, entree, fish or eggs, and shall be well cooked and of good and sufficient quantity and quality.

(d.) Employers in restaurants which provide lodgings for guests shall also provide their workers with lodgings, or shall pay the workers for whom they do not provide lodgings 7s. 6d. per week in addition to the wages hereinbefore mentioned. Provided, however, that employers in Section B who provide full board and lodging for their workers shall be bound to pay only the minimum rates of wages to such workers as are set out in the second column of clause 4 hereof under the heading "Section B."

Overtime.

11. All time worked in excess of the hours herein specified shall be deemed overtime, and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half on full pay as hereinbefore defined for the first four hours, and thereafter double time.

Method of Counting Workers.

12. In computing the number of persons employed for the purpose of this award casual workers shall not be reckoned, and where an employer himself or herself does the work of any worker affected by this award he or she shall be counted as an employee.

Copy of Award.

13. Every employer bound by this award shall at all times cause to be exhibited and maintained in a conspicuous place on the premises, and in such a position as to be easily read by his employees, a notice containing the name and address of the Inspector of Awards of the district, and a statement of the holidays and working-hours of each of his employees, and a copy of this award.

Time and Wages Book.

14. Every employer bound by this award shall keep a time and wages book in which shall be correctly recorded (a) the name of every worker employed, (b) the kind of work on which he or she is employed, (c) the daily hours of his or her employment, (d) the wages paid each week.

Holiday-book.

15. (a.) An approved holiday-book shall be kept in some place accessible to the workers, showing the whole holidays fixed in each week for each worker; and such book shall be signed by such worker before leaving the premises.

(b.) Every worker who fails to sign the record provided, or who signs an incorrect record, shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this award.

Emergency Waitresses, Pantrymaids, and Bar-attendants.

16. (a.) Emergency waitresses and pantrymaids may be employed on six days a week, between the hours of 11.45 a.m. and 2.30 p.m., or between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7.30 p.m., at the rate of 17s. per week for each service; one meal to be provided for each service on each day worked.

(b.) Waiters and male bar-attendants may be employed between 8 p.m. and 11.30 p.m. at the rate of £1 15s. per week.

Under-rate Workers.

17. (a.) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker after due notice to the union, by the local Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such Inspector or other person in so fixing such wage shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such Inspector or other person shall think fit to consider after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b.) Such permit shall be for such period, not exceeding six months, as such Inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of such period shall continue in force until fourteen days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause: Provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such Inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c.) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d.) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Awards of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e.) It shall be the duty of an employer, before employing a worker at such lower wage, to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is fixed.

Preference.

18. (a.) If any employer shall hereafter engage any worker coming within the scope of this award who shall not be a member of the union, and who shall not become a member thereof within fourteen days after his engagement and remain such member, the employer shall dismiss such worker from his service if requested to do so by the union, provided there is then a member of the union equally qualified to perform the particular work required to be done, and ready and willing to undertake the same.

(b.) The provisions of this clause shall operate only if and so long as the rules of the union shall permit any worker coming within the scope of this award of good character and sober habits to become a member of the union upon payment of an entrance fee not exceeding 5s., upon a written application, without ballot or other election and to continue a member upon payment of subsequent contribution not exceeding 1s. per week, and such fines as may be lawfully imposed on him for non-attendance without reasonable excuse at a specially called meeting of the union, of which written notice has been given to him or sent to him by post at his last address as notified by him to the union, or for misconduct at a meeting of the union, or for being more than three months in arrear, without reasonable excuse, in his contributions to the union: Provided that the maximum fine shall not exceed 2s. 6d. for non-attendance at a meeting of the union or for being in arrear with his contributions, and £1 for misconduct at a meeting of the union.

(c.) The local secretary or organizing secretary of the union shall be permitted to interview employees at their place of employment on any one day in each week at a suitable time to be arranged between the employer and the secretary of the union.

(d.) Employers shall, if requested by the organizing secretary of the union, supply him with a list of the names of the members of the staff.

Scope of Award.

20. This award shall operate throughout the Westland Industrial District, but in so far as it affects employers who provide lodgings for guests it shall apply only to the employers listed under the heading "Section B" and their respective successors in business, and to such other persons and firms as the Court may hereafter by special order add as parties.

Term of Award.

21. This award shall come into force on the 30th day of November, 1925, and shall continue in force until the 31st day of December, 1926.

In witness whereof the seal of the Court of Arbitration hath hereto been put and affixed, and the Judge of the Court hath hereunto set his hand, this 17th day of November, 1925.

MEMORANDUM.

Owing to a number of employers carrying on a lodginghouse business in connection with their restaurant business, the Court has made special provision to meet the case of the workers in such establishments. The differential rates are based respectively on the Dominion award rates for private hotels and for restaurants.
